

S. F. POLICE CHIEF Refuses to Obey Court

FAILED TO GET PROMOTED; ENDS LIFE

Banker Depressed by Financial Troubles, Shoots Himself.

(By Associated Press.)
DETROIT, March 6.—Ellwood T. Hance, first vice-president of the Union Trust Company of this city and former postmaster of Detroit, shot and killed himself early today in his home here. Friends say that he had been greatly depressed over his financial affairs. His health had not been good.

President F. W. Blair of the Union Trust Company, and Henry Russell, one of the directors and the company's legal counsel, deny emphatically that the affairs of the Union Trust Company are in any way involved by any of Hance's financial difficulties. They also deny that the affairs of the failed City Savings Bank, for which the Union Trust Company is receiver, are entangled because of Hance's management.

Played Cards With Family.

Hance was at his office yesterday and spent the early evening at cards with his family. The suicide came just at the eve of a long vacation with salary, which the officers of the company were planning to give him.

Friends say that Hance's personal affairs had been badly entangled for some time, and that he had been undergoing a tremendous mental strain. About four weeks ago the Union Trust Company was, in a measure, reorganized and Frank W. Blair, auditor of the Peoples' State Savings Bank, was elected president, which office had been vacant for about a year since the death of William C. McMillan.

While it is intimated by some that disappointment over the elevation of an outside man over him in the Union Trust Company contributed largely to Hance's depression, Henry Russell, director and legal counsel, says that Hance had been told long before the election that he could not be made head of the institution.

Searches Man He Thinks Is Thief

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—S. De Vecchio of 1835 Myrtle street, Oakland, was robbed by a pickpocket on a Castro street car last night of $52 in cash and an amethyst ring valued at $15.

De Vecchio boarded the car at Broadway and Market streets. He had passed by a short way when he discovered the loss of his valuables and immediately reported the matter to the conductor. As he did so he noticed two men leave the car hurriedly and, believing them to be the culprits, followed and overtook one of them. This man threw back his coat and attempted to pass as an officer but De Vecchio was persistent and made him stand and be searched. Nothing was found on him, however, and the victim believes that the first man took his money.

LONDON TIMES ACCUSES KAISER OF BUTTING IN

SCORED FOR TRYING TO GET NAVAL SECRETS

Demands Public Investigation of Emperor's Letter to Lord Tweedmouth.

LONDON, March 6.—Assailing that Emperor William recently sent a letter to Lord Tweedmouth, first lord of the admiralty, on the subject of the British and German naval policy, the Times this morning calls for the production of the letter in Parliament together with Lord Tweedmouth's reply, on the ground that it is an attempt to influence the German interest in the British navy.

"Emperor William holds the honorary rank of admiral in the British navy," says the Times, "but if that is held to warrant interference in our domestic affairs by secret appeals to the head of a department on which naval safety depends, all that can be said is that the abolition of dynastic compliments of this kind is an urgent necessity."

"Had King Edward taken such a step there would have been an outcry of anger universal throughout Germany. And an overwhelming demand for a Joubert ship building program as a titling reply."

"If the emperor has anything to suggest concerning arms, he has the regular official channels of communication and no private relations can excuse a departure from the regular methods. Lord Tweedmouth is a public servant and, therefore, it cannot be contended that the letter is a private matter. It calls for the fullest publicity."

"The lesson for Great Britain is plain after an attempt of this kind to make it easier for Germany's preparations to overtake our own."

Personal Letter.

At the close of this afternoon's sitting

EMPEROR WILHELM OF GERMANY.

of the house of commons Chancellor of the Exchequer Asquith alluded to the episode. "It is a fact," declared he, "that on February 18, Lord Tweedmouth received a letter from the German emperor. It was a purely personal and private communication, conceived in an entirely friendly spirit. My noble friend's answer was equally private."

Lord Tweedmouth has intimated that further information will be given out in the House of Lords on March 8. It is a question, however, whether the communication of the German emperor can be made public without the consent of the writer as well as that of King Edward.

GUM SHOE BURNS WATCHES GALLAGHER ON THE STAND

"Big Jim" a Witness in the Collusive Suit of the Bulletin--Counsel in a Wrangle.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—When proceedings opened in Department No. 6 of the Superior Court this morning, in the Crothers-Older Bulletin collusive case, former Supervisor James Gallagher, chief of the old board, was again placed on the stand by the defense.

Before he could be examined, however, Assistant District Attorney Cook protested against the action of the defense in subpoenaing C. N. Beal, manager of the Bay Cities Water Company, who had been ordered to be on hand with several private books and papers of the company.

"They have no right," said Cook, "to go on a searching expedition in matters that do not directly concern this case. I say they have no legal right to look into the private business of the Bay Cities Water Company. The Bay Cities Water Company is not being libeled. They have requested Mr. Beal to bring the article of incorporation of the company and the minutes of the meetings of the stockholders. What right have they to look into these books? They might have access to matters that they want to get at for private reasons."

Attorney Sullivan then replied at great length. Attorney Cook objected to this speech-making and Judge Doelling rebuked Sullivan, telling him that more might be heard on the matter when the jury was not present. The incident was closed at this point and Gallagher taken in hand by the defense. After being asked to identify several papers he was turned over to the prosecution and examined at length by Prosecutor Cook.

While Gallagher was on the stand Detective William J. Burns came in and sat beside Fremont Older. Frequently the defendant and the detective whispered together and Burns seemed fairly to glow upon Attorney Cook as he cross-examined the witness. Gallagher seemed uneasy after Burns came in, as the latter kept watching him with almost a hypnotic stare.

Defense Is Balked.

After Gallagher had been excused C. M. Beal, manager of the Bay Cities Water Company, was questioned as to the officers and stockholders of the company. The defense was visibly balked in its attempts to show that Tevis owned the majority of the stock of the company, when the witness testified that Tevis did not own even half the stock. Asked whether Mr. Crocker, Mr. Hellman or Mr. McEmery owned stock, Beal replied in the negative.

The witness was willing to answer the

CHINESE KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Dong Lun Chung, a Chinese merchant, 70 years of age, was run down and killed at 11 o'clock last night by an automobile, at Seventh and Harrison streets. His dead body was found lying in the streets by Joseph Gibbs, Thomas Wright and Philip Hastings, who notified the police and the body was taken to the morgue.

There were no witnesses to the accident so far as can be learned. Automobile tracks were plainly in evidence at the scene of the accident. These tracks, one on each side of the dead body, could be traced from Seventh and Harrison streets to Fallon street, Fallon street and over the Eighth street bridge. The authorities are now working on the case in hope of locating those in the automobile at the time of the accident.

The body of the dead Chinese was identified by Long Hin, who lived with Dong Lun Chung at 854 Harrison street.

Health Officer Wants Answers to These Three Questions

Dr. John D. Long, United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, who is in charge of the fight against plague, wants every housewife, and those in charge of warehouses, docks, factories and stores, to send to the Board of Health office immediately, a postal card, answering these three questions:

- First—Were there many rats about your premises prior to February 12?
 - Second—State as exactly as possible the number of dead rats about your premises since February 12.
 - Third—Are there more, or less rats about your premises now than there were before February 12?
- Dr. Long says that it is imperative that every man and woman having the good of Oakland at heart should comply with his request.

DR. LONG AND DR. LOEB DIFFER OVER PLAGUE

Scientist Says 8 Per Cent of Rats in Oakland Are Infected; Government Expert Says Only 1 4-10.

Dr. Jacques Loeb, head of the biological department of the University of California, says "Eight per cent of the rats being caught in Oakland are infected with bubonic plague."

Dr. John D. Long, United States public health and marine hospital service, in charge of the fight against plague in Oakland, says: "Dr. Loeb is mistaken. The number of infected rats in Oakland has not reached 8 per cent. It is only 1 4-10 per cent."

Dr. Loeb made no explanation of his startling statement in regard to the alleged high percentage of infected rats in Oakland beyond intimating that he got his figures from laboratory tests of post-mortem examination of rats made by the Oakland Board of Health.

Another sensation followed close on the first shock, when Dr. Loeb said that an appeal should instantly be made to the Federal authorities to take charge of the sanitary affairs of Berkeley.

Dr. Loeb declared that the residents along the water front were justified in their determination to prevent the dumping of garbage on the shore at any cost and by any means.

He scored the trustees for their apathy and indifference on a matter that is of such vital interest to all the people. "The increase in rats in Berkeley will continue as long as we dispose of the garbage in heaps, leaving it as food for parasites and a plague spot in hot weather," said Dr. Loeb.

Qualifies Statement.

Dr. A. C. Bancroft, Professor Loeb's assistant in the biological laboratory, qualified the assertions of his chief by explaining that the unusual rate of infection was due to the fact that the residents along the water front were justified in their determination to prevent the dumping of garbage on the shore at any cost and by any means.

He scored the trustees for their apathy and indifference on a matter that is of such vital interest to all the people. "The increase in rats in Berkeley will continue as long as we dispose of the garbage in heaps, leaving it as food for parasites and a plague spot in hot weather," said Dr. Loeb.

BURNS' MAN BIGGY PLACES HIMSELF IN CONTEMPT

Disregards Subpoena to Give Deposition in Suit Brought by Ruef--Will Be Cited.

(Special to The Tribune.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—This morning Chief of Police Biggy refused to recognize a subpoena to appear before Senator Gus Hartman, acting as commissioner in the case of Abraham Ruef against Frank H. Dunne, Chief of Police W. J. Biggy, District Attorney W. H. Langdon, Rudolph Spreckels and Detective W. J. Burns, to recover the sum of $4639.95 paid by Ruef for board and the support of keepers in the house on Fillmore street, in which Ruef was confined by Elisor W. J. Biggy.

Biggy offered as a reason for his failure to appear the fact that he had been advised by his attorney that it was not necessary for him to appear for the purpose of giving his deposition.

This act on Biggy's part has been considered by Commissioner Hartman as contempt and the latter has decided to have the chief brought into court to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of that charge.

This afternoon Attorney Ach, who represents the commissioner, as also the complainant in the case, Abraham Ruef, commenced the preparation of papers for proceedings in contempt, and it is likely that the document will be served on the delinquent chief before the day is over.

An impression obtains that the other defendants named above will treat the subpoena served upon them in this case in the same manner, that is, by paying no attention to it.

Each of them will therefore be haled into court, thus leading to still further complications in the seemingly interminable litigation growing out of the so-called graft prosecution.

The suit in question is based upon the fact that Ruef, while in the custody of the elisor, under promise of immunity from the prosecution, and also in possession of a guarantee from the District Attorney and Detective Burns that he would not be confined in a public place of imprisonment, was compelled to support a small army of guards appointed by Elisor Biggy.

Pledge Violated.

Ruef asserts that the pledge of immunity has been violated as also the promise that he would not be confined in a public prison, that he is now being prosecuted by the man who had promised for that of Rudolph Spreckels, Tuesday for Langdon and Wednesday for Detective Burns.

Ruef declares, accordingly, that the expense he incurred was occasioned by the false representation of the prosecution, and on that ground, seeks to recover the sum paid out.

The depositions of the defendants were ordered, beginning today with the testimony of Chief Biggy. Tomorrow was set aside for the deposition of Judge Frank H. Dunne. Monday of next week for that of Rudolph Spreckels, Tuesday for Langdon and Wednesday for Detective Burns.

Biggy Fails to Appear.

Proceedings were to have been opened at 10 o'clock this morning in the office of Attorney Ach, on the seventh story of the Cole Building in this city. At that hour Commissioner Hartman was on hand ready to open the business. There were also in attendance Attorneys Ach and Murphy of this city, and Attorney M. C. Chapman of Oakland, all of counsel for Mr. Ruef.

An hour was spent waiting for Biggy. That official, however, did not appear on the scene. Neither was there any person to represent him or explain his absence. After the hour's waiting had come to a close, Commissioner Hartman stood at the door of Mr. Ach's office and called about three times "W. J. Biggy come into court."

The cry echoed and re-echoed through the halls of the great building. Clerks and others rushed to the doors of officers on all the floors of the structure, wondering what occasioned the outcry. Chief Biggy, however, came not. Neither was there received a message to explain the situation.

Attorney Ach was asked by a TRIBUNE correspondent what would be the result if Biggy refused to respect the summons. "The first step," replied that gentleman, "will be to have Mr. Biggy cited to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of court. If Mr. Biggy fails to appear, then there will be another proceeding in which the delinquent witness will be adjudged guilty."

In conversation with Chief Biggy THE TRIBUNE correspondent secured the following statement at a moment when Commissioner Hartman and the attorneys referred to were awaiting the chief's arrival.

"I do not intend to respond to the summons," said Biggy.

"Because I have been instructed by my attorney that it is not necessary for me to attend."

"On what ground was the advice given?"

"I did not ask my attorney. He simply said it was not necessary for me to be present. There was no informality, as far as I know, in the service of the subpoena. At least I heard of none. I have not questioned the validity of the service. My attorney is J. J. Webb. Under his advice I shall not testify. I don't know what Judge Dunne and the other defendants in this case will do."

STABBED, ROBBED AND LEFT IN STREET TO DIE

BERKELEY, March 6.—John Bernadon, a laundry worker living at 2205 Eighth street, was found last night unconscious in front of his home with a knife wound six inches long in his neck.

Bernadon was removed by his wife with the assistance of neighbors to his house. At midnight he recovered consciousness, but could give the police little information as to how he was injured. He told the police that the last thing he remembered was drinking with some strangers in a saloon in Golden Gate. A purse containing $80, he says, was stolen from him. Bernadon is in a critical condition.

SANTA FE MAPS WILL ALL SHOW OAKLAND

New York Official Explains Why
This City Was Left Off
Office-Window Diagram.

A story in THE TRIBUNE telling how a real estate man refused to buy a ticket from the Santa Fe because the railroad company neglected to put Oakland on a map in its New York City office has brought forth explanations from the officials in New York and Chicago.

General Eastern Passenger Agent George C. Dillard, in New York, in reply to an inquiry from Passenger Traffic Manager W. J. Black of Chicago, says:

"The diagram referred to is a skeleton map showing our principal terminals, which I had painted on wood and displayed for a time in the window of this office. While this map showed some few intermediate points, it could not, of course, and was not intended to show all, the purpose being merely to give a general outline of the system."

"Unfortunately, Oakland was among the many points shown, a circumstance which I regret in view of the well-known citizen's complaint."

"Some time ago I removed the map from the window, intending to have it replaced and replaced in the window later on."

Oakland Goes on the Map.

"I will see that Oakland is placed there on the map as it is again placed in the window."

Mr. Black, when THE TRIBUNE reached the Chicago office, immediately communicated with Mr. Dillard, in New York, saying:

"Please let me have the particulars in regard to this case. I naturally assume that any maps in your office are up to date and show Oakland thereon."

J. J. Byrne, the Santa Fe's head man in Los Angeles, forwarded the explanation of Mr. Dillard to City Passenger Agent T. A. Ridgdon of Oakland today.

In view of the correspondence extending such high officials of the road, it is safe to say that hereafter the maps of the Santa Fe system will not only include Oakland, but the name and position of this city will appear in a conspicuous manner.

The incident shows that the Santa Fe officials in New York and Chicago consider Oakland as one of the most important points on the entire system, and that, instead of ignoring or neglecting this city they are earnestly solicitous of its welfare and advertise it all over the country.

BURNS TRIED TO FORCE RUEF TO COMMIT PERJURY, THEY SWEAR Housekeeper at Prison De Luxe and One of the Guards Subscribe to Sensational Affidavits.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—F. A. Reis, owner of the house at 2849 Fillmore street, where Abraham Ruef was confined by the graft prosecution, and Bertha Weigel, a domestic employed there, swore in affidavits for Ruef that Detective William J. Burns had attempted to suborn perjury.

The affidavits were prepared by Henry Ach and Frank Murphy, attorneys for Ruef, and their contents placed Burns in a decidedly bad light.

Miss Weigel swears that during the trial of Eugene Schmitz she was awakened from sleep late one night by the loud talking of Ruef and Detective Burns, who were in a room underneath her. Ruef was protesting he would not contribute testimony wanted by Burns against Schmitz because it was not the truth.

Kill Agreement.

She further alleges that Burns said that if Ruef did not testify the way he was told the graft prosecution would refuse to treat with him or carry out any immunity agreement.

She says that shortly after Burns left the house at 2 o'clock that morning she repeated the conversation to one of the guards and afterwards was given employment at Burns house.

Reis swears to the truth of everything that the girl declared in the affidavit, and further alleges that Miss Weigel was discharged at the request of the prosecution. According to his affidavit, one of the guards told him that Elmer Biggy and Detective Burns wanted him to pick a quarrel with the servant after the trial of Schmitz was over and discharge her.

Sweating Ruef.

His affidavit also tells of the methods used by Burns in sweating Ruef.

One paragraph of the affidavit says: "One of the guards, McCarthy, told me that one of their schemes was to wake Ruef in the middle of the night, after he had been asleep, and tell him he was talking in his sleep and giving things away."

Both the lawyers for Ruef said last night that they had not disclosed all of the facts in possession of Miss Weigel and Reis, but that both would appear in court in defense of Ruef.

Miss Weigel's affidavit reads: "My name is Bertha Weigel. I am twenty-nine years of age. I now live at 889 Eddy street, in the city and county of San Francisco, State of California; have lived in San Francisco more than five years last past. I know William J. Biggy, and I know William J. Burns, and I know Abraham Ruef; I entered the employ of F. A. Reis at 2849 Fillmore street in the month of April 1, 1907, at which time the said premises were used as a prison for the purposes of detaining Abraham Ruef therein; I became acquainted with Abraham Ruef, William J. Burns and William J. Biggy at said place; Abraham Ruef was detained in the front room on the second floor of said building and I had a room immediately above the room occupied by Abraham Ruef on the third floor of the building. I remained in the employ of Mr. Reis at said place all the time while Eugene Schmitz was being tried for extortion before Judge Dunne; I was discharged by Mr. Reis and immediately thereafter was employed by Mr. Burns to enter his house for general housework. I entered his employ for about two months; a day or two before Ruef was to testify in the Schmitz case, while I was employed at 2849 Fillmore street by Mr. Reis, and in the evening of the day Mr. Burns called on Mr. Ruef with Dr. Kaplan; I was in my room and had gone to bed and I was awakened by loud voices under me; I knew Mr. Burns' voice and I knew the voice of Mr. Burns' and it was in the middle of the night, and I heard Mr. Burns say to Mr. Ruef in effect: 'We want you to change your story; we believe you are trying to protect Schmitz and his wife and his children, and you must testify that you and Schmitz agreed to hold up the French restaurants.'"

Ruef Refused.

"I heard Mr. Ruef say: 'I will not do that; it is not the truth and I have told you so many times.'"

"Mr. Burns then said: 'Well, if you don't testify that way, and the way we want you to, all our promises to let you off are off, and we'll go after you.' Mr. Ruef then said that he would not swear to any lies, and that he was going to tell the truth, and that he was telling the truth; and Mr. Burns then said in effect: 'I don't believe you are telling the truth, and also said: 'That everything was up between them.'"

"The talk was very loud, and I also heard Mr. Ruef say, 'What in the hell do you want me to say? I am telling the truth and you want me to change it.'"

Burns' Loud Talk.

"I heard them talking until half past 2 in the morning, and I heard Mr. Burns say when he left the house, very loud and in an angry manner, 'That they would not call Mr. Ruef as a witness.'"

"All that time I was working there Mr. Ruef was guarded by seven or eight guards. I waited upon Mr. Ruef, made up his room and brought him his meals."

"I remember when he pleaded guilty, and before that the guards and Elmer Biggy never allowed Mr. Ruef to be alone; they kept the windows down, and they kept his light burning all night; they were always listening to everything that anybody said to Mr. Ruef; even his lawyers had to whisper to him, and I saw some of the guards many times sneak into the bath room and attempt to hear what Mr. Ruef was saying to his lawyers and his sister or father."

Told McCarthy.

"I know McCarthy, one of the guards that worked there. The next day after I overheard this talk between Ruef and Burns, I told McCarthy that I had heard it, the next morning I told McCarthy that they, meaning Ruef and Burns, had kept me awake until half past 2 in the morning. McCarthy then asked me if I had heard what they said, and I answered, saying, yes, I had heard the whole conversation, and McCarthy did not say a word about it."

"On the Saturday following the verdict in the Schmitz case I was discharged by Mr. Reis. He told me that I neglected my work, and that was but an excuse, because it is not true that I neglected my work, and Mr. Biggy and Mr. Burns, who were constant visitors to the house, know that I did not neglect my work, as I frequently remained up very late in the night attending to my duties and frequently saw Mr. Burns leaving the house very late at night."

While Ruef Was Ill.

"Mr. Ruef at the time I heard this conversation was just recovering from an illness and while his trial was on he was quite sick in the house. The guards when I attempted to wait upon Mr. Ruef and to give him some slight comforts, as for instance to fix his bed, objected to my doing so and did not permit me to do so, saying that Mr. Ruef's illness was only put on or assumed."

"I saw that Mr. Ruef was sick and spoke to Mr. Burns about it, and he said to me that anybody could see that Mr. Ruef was quite sick."

"I also saw Rabbi Nieto and Rabbi Kaplan quite frequently enter the house and remain with Mr. Ruef a long time."

Owner of House.

Here is the affidavit of Reis: "F. A. Reis, being duly sworn on oath, deposes and says: I reside in the city and county of San Francisco; I have lived in the city and county of San Francisco approximately ten years, I now reside at 2849 Fillmore street, and have resided there since October, 1905; that in the month of March, 1907, W. J. Burns and W. J. Biggy made arrangements with me to enter my house and to use the same as a place of detention for Abraham Ruef, and to board seven guards, and Mr. Biggy, the elisor, and Mr. Abraham Ruef; that they detained Mr. Abraham Ruef at my house until the 23d day of September, 1907, continuously, from March 28, 1907; there were no other persons living in the house at said time except myself and a cook and a waitress and a housekeeper; the housekeeper's name was Mrs. Litzius. For a while and from March, 1907, until shortly after the trial of Eugene Schmitz upon the charge of extortion to wit, some time about the middle of June, 1907, the chambermaid and waitress employed by me at said place was a young woman by the name of Bertha Weigel."

Guard Told Him.

"The next day after I heard that the guard, McCarthy, spoke to me and told me that the girl Bertha had told him that she had overheard the conversation between Ruef and Burns, and he told me that he had received directions from Mr. Burns and Mr. Biggy to wait until the Schmitz trial was over, and then to discharge Bertha, but that not to tell her that it was because Burns or Biggy wanted her discharged, but to pick a quarrel with her or to find fault with her and discharge her."

"I did not do so, and the same word was then brought to me by Mr. Biggy's son, William, and I said to McCarthy that if they wanted me to discharge the girl they could tell me, and I would see Mr. Biggy about it, and he said I was a damned fool and asked me if I could not take a tumble, that they were afraid that Biggy did not want me to talk to him about it, and that they wanted the girl kept until the Schmitz trial was over, so that she would not say anything to anyone, or become a witness on the other side, this was shown to me within three days before the Schmitz trial ended, that is, before the verdict came in, and within two or three days thereafter I was again requested by Mr. Biggy's son, William, to discharge Bertha, and I did so, and I afterwards learned that Mr. Burns took her to his house as a domestic."

"I heard Mr. Burns say to Mr. Ruef before the plea of guilty was entered in effect as follows: 'You are a damned fool; you see Schmitz don't come to see you; the other fellows don't come to see you, and they won't do anything for you; why don't you come over to us?' And the next, or two nights, before Mr. Ruef pleaded guilty I heard Mr. Burns say to Mr. Ruef: 'You are a damned fool; why don't you do what we want you to; if you don't Schmitz will and we would rather let you go free than Schmitz or the others.'"

"The young woman, Bertha Weigel, had a room directly over the room occupied by Mr. Ruef, and I occupied a room next to the room occupied by Bertha Weigel in said house, and my said room was in a part over the room occupied by Mr. Ruef."

Their Loud Talk.

"While the case against Schmitz was on trial before Judge Dunne, Mr. Burns came to see Mr. Ruef nearly every night and would talk with him for a long time, and one night while the said trial was on he came there with Rabbi Kaplan, and in the middle of the same night I was awakened by loud talking coming from the room below, and I recognized the voices of Mr. Ruef and Mr. Burns, and I distinctly heard Mr. Burns say in effect: 'I believe you want to protect Schmitz, and you have got to swear that you and Schmitz wanted to hold up the French restaurants,' and I heard Mr. Ruef say: 'I will not, it is not the truth and I have told you it was not the truth a great many times.' I heard Burns say to Ruef in effect: 'If you don't swear to Ruef, then I will go after you.' I heard Mr. Ruef say he would not swear to any lies and I heard Mr. Burns say that everything would be up between them, and I heard Mr. Ruef say: 'What in the hell, or what in hell, or something like that, do you want me to swear to. I told you the truth and you want me to change it, and I won't do it.'"

TUNNEL UNDER BAY TO GOAT ISLAND IS PLANNED

Key Route and Bay Counties Railway Consolidate With $7,500,000 Capital Stock.

To connect this side of the bay and Goat Island by a tube or tunnel, and thus lessen the time required for travel to and from San Francisco, is the plan announced in articles of incorporation of the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Consolidated Railway.

These articles have been filed in the office of the County Clerk of this county, and effect the consolidation of the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Railway, known as the Key Route and the recently incorporated San Francisco and Bay Counties Railway. The newly formed company takes over all the lines operated by the Key Route in Oakland, Berkeley, Piedmont and Emeryville as well as the project to run a line from San Francisco to San Jose, via Emeryville, Piedmont and Hayward, with two branch lines from Oakland, which was announced at the formation of the San Francisco and Bay Counties Railway.

Under Bay Tunnel.

Besides this the trans-bay service will be improved in the near future by the construction of a tube, which will do away with the necessity of ferry boats east of Goat Island. Before this can be done, however, permission to utilize Goat Island will have to be obtained from the Federal Government. The plan is to build the tunnel under the bay from the pierhead line on this side of the bay to Goat Island.

Oakland is to be the principal place of business of the new company. The total number of miles of railway included in the articles of incorporation is 81.66. Of this number, 18.66 represent the mileage of the Key Route, already constructed. The remaining 63 miles belong to the San Francisco and Bay Counties Railway, and are not constructed.

Stock Valued at $7,500,000.

The capital stock of the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Consolidated Railway is $7,500,000, all of which has been allotted to the two companies forming the consolidation, in consideration for the entire surrender of all their assets. The Key Route is allotted 50,000 shares of preferred stock and 35,000 shares of common stock. The San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Railway is allotted 2,500 shares of common stock. Of the entire capital stock of the new company, 50,000 shares are preferred, and 27,500 are common stock. The preferred stock is entitled to a yearly dividend of six per cent before dividends can be paid on the common stock.

The directors are F. M. Smith, P. C. Havens, E. A. Heron, H. Wadsworth and Dennis Seales.

Certification is made in the articles of incorporation filed, of the ownership of shares of the two companies that are consolidated. Of the Key Route stock, F. M. Smith owns 2875 shares, F. C. Havens, 13,165, Harmon Bell 2050, E. A. Heron 280, George E. Pratt 1600, Dennis Seales 10, W. F. Kelly 250, Sam J. Taylor 160, Sam J. Taylor, trustee, 23,345, William G. Henshaw 500, A. E. H. Gaines 1750. Of the stock of the San Francisco and Bay Counties Railway F. M. Smith owns 1647 shares, F. C. Havens 235, E. A. Heron 10, George E. Pratt 10 and Dennis Seales 10.

STRICKEN FAMILIES BURY VICTIMS OF SCHOOL FIRE

Identification of the Bodies is Difficult

CLEVELAND, O., March 6.—The body of Miss Katherine Weller, one of the two teachers who lost their lives in the Colingwood fire, has been identified by a dentist. The body had been so terribly burned that it could hardly be distinguished from the bodies of the smaller girls. The identification was established by her gold filled teeth upon descriptions furnished by a Pittsburg dentist.

The body of Rosetta Machnich, a former pupil in this school, was identified by her shoes. When Mrs. Machnich was positive of the identification she fell fainting upon the charred body of her little one. There are still 23 bodies unidentified.

167 Were Buried.
So far 167 bodies have been recovered. The list of missing now tallies with the number of unidentified, which would indicate that all of the bodies have been found and that the total death list will stand at 167.

In fully 100 cases the funerals will be individual, each family burying its own dead. The first of these funerals was held this morning. They will continue throughout the day. In some instances funeral services were grouped, five to ten bodies in one church. The unidentified will be buried next Monday morning, according to present arrangements.

Funds for Needy.

The expense of these funerals, together with the funerals of children whose parents are not in a financial condition to meet the burden, will be borne by public subscriptions, which are growing larger every hour. Already thousands of dollars have been raised.

In addition to this a bill has been introduced in the State legislature appropriating $20,000 for relief of the needy sufferers. This bill, it is expected, will become a law today.

Telephones Daughter; Kills Himself; Colusa.—G. W. Allister, aged 67, shot and instantly killed himself in his store. He telephoned to his daughter that something was going to happen and for her to come to the store at once, but before finishing his conversation he shot himself. The daughter, hearing the shot over the telephone, rushed to the store and found her father dead. No reason is known for the suicide.

Our New Factory and what it means to you—

Our growing business demanded a larger manufacturing plant.—We secured the Penaud building on Fifth avenue and Fourteenth street, one of the most favorably known and centrally located buildings in the city of New York. We fitted it up from cellar to dome with the latest and best appliances known to modern science of tailoring. It is a factory of which we may well feel proud—it is one of the best of its kind in the world.

On the 20th of last month we opened this building to the public of New York and gave the gentlemen of that city an opportunity to come direct to our factory and buy their clothing for the same price as you may buy it here at any of our four stores. The crowds responding to this offering show what New Yorkers think of our clothing and prices. When we tell you we were taken off our feet by the tremendous response we are not exaggerating one iota. The retail business we are doing in New York is simply phenomenal. We are selling our suits for exactly the same price as we sell them here—they are the best values in New York City—they are being appreciated there as they are appreciated here.

The Suits we sell $10 to $30 from -

Every honest merchant tries to give his customers the very best values he can. Some merchants are able to give greater values than others. That's the reason some firms are larger—do more business.

Take men's clothing for instance. Every merchant in this city (except S. N. Wood & Co.) buy their clothing of the manufacturer or wholesaler. They pay the wholesaler or manufacturer a good profit. They in turn must make a profit too.

We manufacture our clothing --- operate a large factory --- and sell direct to you. We naturally save you the wholesaler's or manufacturer's profit. In other words, when you buy a suit of S. N. Wood & Co. you buy it for the same price that other retail clothiers pay. See the point?

That word "Exclusive" An exclusive clothing store is a store that carries a very small stock—called an exclusive stock. They demand high prices—called exclusive prices. They do a small, exclusive business. The difference between an exclusive clothing store and S. N. Wood & Co. is about a hundred per cent—it is the difference in the price. Then, also, there is the difference in the assortment. We show ten styles where other stores show one.

H. C. CAPWELL RETURNS FROM EXTENDED TRIP EAST

SAYS WORLD IS WATCHING FLEET

Merchant Declares Great Interest Is Manifested in Doings
of West.

H. C. Capwell, one of Oakland's prominent merchants and head of the H. C.
Capwell Lumber House, returned home last night from a six weeks' eastern trip, spent principally in New York, where he made heavy spring purchases. All through the East, Capwell stated that interest is being taken in the West, particularly upon the arrival of the fleet, the rehabilitation of San Francisco and the bubonic plague conditions.

All Eyes on West.

He said the eyes of the world are focused at present around the San Francisco bay district, and a prominence is given California such as she never received before. The benefits that will accrue to the West from the arrival of Mr. Capwell's world record squadron were commented upon on all sides, and the Easterners, said Mr. Capwell, make more of it than those in the West.

"They showed me," he added, "the great benefit which we shall gain from the fleet, not only now, but still more in the future, and I come home happy over the encouraging prospects that await the bay cities. I am glad of this enthusiasm and interest in California. But let's not stop here. Let us keep on showing the East our power, so this coast will be known the wide world over as the coming country. That's what it is now.
All we need is to have the claim acknowledge."

Exaggerated in East.
Capwell said that the plague situation is grossly exaggerated by big New York dailies and distorted out of all reasonable bounds. He added:
"We who live here know quite well the bubonic plague condition, and though terrors, that our people are backing the health officials in exterminating the diseased rats. But our plight is not such as our Easterners make them out to be."
"I was astounded, picking up one of the larger New York dailies, to be confronted with screaming headlines, and articles illustrated with burning buildings, and surrounded by the dead and dying, all given to the public as an ac-

H. C. CAPWELL

curate account of conditions existing in San Francisco today.

"It's just this kind of world-wide advertising that is going to hoodoo us for years to come if steps are not taken immediately to stamp out the least vestige of epidemic. We know that conditions are not as bad as the eastern papers paint them, but the outsider doesn't know it and he is the man we want to bring here."
Mr. Capwell touched upon the present financial situation and said that while business is not so brisk the indications of a good year are very encouraging, and as proof of his faith in the stability of business has ordered a large stock of spring goods. "The basic principles of prosperity," added Mr. Capwell in conclusion,
"are too firmly fixed to be upset by a passing wave of financial stringency."

Railroad Rules: Denver, Colo.—The News today says all employees in the mechanical department of the Denver

ed to sign printed slips containing the rules under which the company expects to operate in future.

The new rules provide for a ten hour day instead of nine hours as agreed upon

during the year instead of all the holidays usually observed by union men.
The four days to be recognized as holidays are Christmas, Fourth of July, Labor Day and Thanksgiving Day.

BOY ADMITS THEFT OF HIS MOTHER'S JEWELRY

Taken Into Custody While Pawn-ing Gold Watch—Took Six Diamond Rings.

ALAMEDA, March 6.—Oliver Fisher and Bert Seely, youths whose homes are in this city, were taken into custody by Detective Holland in Oakland yesterday while they were negotiating to pawn a woman's gold watch.

Fisher said he lived at 1533 St. Charles street and Seely gave his address as 1007 Central avenue. This morning Detective Walmuth of the local police force interviewed the boys in Oakland, then returned and visited Fisher's home.

The youth's mother, when asked by the detectives if her gold watch was missing, replied that she did not think so. Upon going to where she kept her jewelry, Mrs. Fisher discovered that her watch and six diamond rings, all valued at more than $400, were gone.

When young Fisher was confronted with the fact that his mother's watch and rings were missing, he broke down and admitted that he had taken them and said that Seely had assisted him in pawning the jewelry. As most of the jewelry has been recovered it is probable that no charges will be preferred against the boys.

THE RED FRONT

951-3 Broadway Street, Corner 9th Street, Oakland

The Ohio and Omaha Platforms.

The Ohio Republican platform will be the keynote of the Presidential campaign if William H. Taft is to be the Republican standard-bearer, as now seems certain. It will not only be the party slogan, but will voice the intent of the Roosevelt administration projected into the future. Both as being the authoritative declaration of the leading candidate for the Presidency and the prospective platform utterances of the party in power, the Ohio enunciation is worthy of the closest examination. As such, it must be compared to and contrasted with the answering challenge put forth in the Omaha platform of the Bryan Democracy.

The declarations of the Ohio Republican platform are far more expressive of the political aspirations of Thomas Jefferson than are the high-sounding platitudes, glittering generalities and States rights fustian embodied in the platform concocted under Mr. Bryan's supervision by the Populistic Democracy of Nebraska. Mr. Bryan preaches the rankest paternalism in one breath and in the next declares against any infringement of the political autonomy and sovereignty of the several States. He has attempted to harness the policy of Hamilton and the theories of Jefferson to the same band wagon. He cries aloud for socialism and individualism, for Federal repression of personal liberty and local self-government and at the same time of freedom from the jurisdiction of the national courts and exemption from Federal authority. This is all earnest and sincere despite its inconsistency and incompatibility.

On the other hand, the Ohio platform breathes the very essence of Jeffersonian Democracy. It speaks for that broad spirit of individualism of which Jefferson was the most conspicuous exponent this continent has ever produced. It demands that monopoly be throttled and legitimate competition be fostered and protected. It demands that interstate transportation and commercial activities be controlled and regulated to the extent of preventing abuse, extortion and discrimination, but sets its face against government ownership and other forms of State socialism. It demands that all submit to the wholesome restraint of law, but proclaims against any policy that will repress the development of individual character and individual enterprise. Mr. Taft's friends speak for the perpetuation and strengthening of the magnificent type of American citizen that has become a synonym throughout the world for strenuous physical and intellectual vigor, independence of thought and initiative in action.

The declaration is for a State made up of strong individual units. Mr. Bryan dreams of an Utopia in which all political and material progress shall be by rule of thumb, no individual being taller, broader or stronger than his fellows—in other words, an ideal democracy which shall make all men alike and suppress the growth and development of the natural man.

Here we have a strange contradiction. The party of Hamilton preaching the gospel of Thomas Jefferson, and the party founded by the author of the Declaration of Independence, the Virginia Bill of Rights and the Resolutions of 1797-8 advocating the paternalism of Hamilton and Jay and the Socialistic theories of Karl Marx. Mr. Bryan dreams of impossible conditions, and in expressing a sublimated aspiration loses sight of the irrepressible conflict between opposing methods of achieving human happiness, peace and prosperity by political action. He proposes to enforce the philosophy of Hamilton with the political agencies of Jefferson. His plan is as ineffective as using a balloon for a diving bell or attempting to fly with a submarine boat.

In all this clash of contradiction the tariff is a mere passing incident. It is only a detail of government anyway, an expedient that may be altered or terminated at any time. Mr. Taft wants the tariff revised and duties lowered along protective lines. Mr. Bryan wants the same thing done from the standpoint of a free trader. The distinction is not a broad one in practice, and is insufficient as a national issue. Taft's plan will not please the standpatters and the Boston Home Market Club, but Mr. Bryan's plan will please them still less. With Taft and Bryan as the opposing candidates, however, the standpatters will be a negligible quantity in the campaign.

The Stockton Channel Scheme.

The Stockton Independent thinks it unwise and selfish for any one to protest against the State expending $400,000 to deepen Stockton channel. If the State shall appropriate money to dredge out Stockton slough for navigation purposes, why should it not appropriate money to improve navigation in the Sacramento and Feather rivers? Why should it not with equal justice and propriety pay for improving the San Joaquin river, Petaluma creek and Suisun slough? Why, indeed, should not the State pay part of the cost of improving Oakland, San Pedro and San Diego harbors? The opposition to Congressman McKinlay's proposition is not prompted by hostility to Stockton or jealousy of her commercial growth, but by objection to establishing a precedent for perpetual drains on the State treasury to defray the cost of navigation improvements which should be made at the expense of the national government. The navigable waters of California, in common with those of every other State, are under the control of the Federal government, which has always borne the burden of river and harbor improvement. Why should a change of policy be inaugurated for the sole benefit of Stockton? It is obvious that if State aid to navigation improvement shall begin and end with Stockton slough, the proposition is unfair and unjust. If it is to be extended all over the State as a general policy, when and where is it to end? By adopting the policy of the State paying in part the cost of improving local waterways the taxpayers of California will take upon themselves a burden which properly belongs to the national government, and which in all other States is charged to the Federal expense account. THE TRIBUNE believes Stockton channel should be dredged to a depth of fifteen feet, but objects to the State paying any part of the work. Congress ought to appropriate the money without delay or without asking the State to appropriate a part. It does not make any difference who favors the plan proposed by Congressman McKinlay; it is a new departure fraught with mischievous probabilities.

A hint for the Democrats of the country. Let Bryan pick out the candidate for Vice-President and save the trouble and expense of a convention in Denver.

John D. Rockefeller could do one thing at least if he got the nomination for President. He could oil his way to the white shack on Pennsylvania avenue.

Those Democrats who are still for Bryan seem to have imbibed what Ralph Waldo Emerson was pleased to term infinite toleration.

Right now it looks as though the prosecution in San Francisco is suffering from stuporous melancholia.

BUT PHELAN NEVER RESIGNS

George A. Newhall: "Mr. Phelan, while I am a friend of yours I will tell you why the citizens do not contribute readily and liberally to this fund. It is because the people are weary of you and what you represent. They will not contribute while you are the head of this committee, and it would be better that you resign."

William C. Ralston: "That is absolutely true."

Terse Press Comment

The Attempt to Snub Secretary Metcalf.

About the most petty thing that could be conceived and the most despicable action that could have been the outcome of spite, envy, bigotry of small souls, narrowness of mental equipment and trickery in politics is the action of the California committee arranging for the reception of the fleet in perpetrating an insult to the President and a snub to Secretary Metcalf. The committee assumes to dictate to the President whom he shall choose as his personal representative at the time of the reception to take his place at the banquets and entertainments. The invitation sent to the President was insulting and impudent.

Secretary Metcalf has many enemies in his own party in the State. Many are envious of the honor that came to him through appointment to the cabinet. Others wish to belittle him in an effort to place him outside of consideration for Senator from this State, a position to which it is known that Metcalf aspires. But it seems that the time of the reception of the fleet in San Francisco should be the one occasion where petty politics should be relegated to the past.

The reception committee represents in a sense the cities of the bay. In a larger sense the entire people of California. They are supposed to extend a welcome for all the people, entertain the officers and men of the fleet in the name of the public—not only Republicans, but Democrats—and the internal squabbles of the Republican leaders should not be known throughout the arrangements. That the members of the committee have exhibited such narrowness of spirit in giving consideration to political feeling is an evidence of how few of them are qualified to take the lead in a public movement.

Mr. Metcalf is the Secretary of the Navy and the head of the department to which the officers and men to be honored at the series of banquets and entertainments belong. He was chosen by the President for an important cabinet position. To snub Metcalf means, then, to discredit the discrimination of President Roosevelt in his choice of cabinet officers, and to slight the department to which belong the visitors to whom the bay cities and the State would do honor. In the face of such petty action it would be the right thing if Roosevelt would change the fleet schedule—Grass Valley Union.

The Insult Offered Secretary Metcalf in San Francisco.

From this distance it would appear that some one in authority in San Francisco is trying hard to give at-front, not to use a phrase more harsh to Secretary of the Navy Metcalf.

When it was first made known that the battleship fleet was coming to the Pacific Coast efforts were made to have the President attend the reception which would be rendered the officers and men on their arrival. Secretary Metcalf, being the head of the navy portfolio, was invited when it was learned that it would be impossible for Mr. Roosevelt to attend. The Secretary had made up his mind to accept the invitation to be the guest of the people of San Francisco on that historical occasion, and he so informed the committee.

It is now evident that a portion of the reception committee appointed by Mayor Taylor does not favor the presence of Metcalf as the representative of the President and the head of the navy department and they have impudently the President to send Secretary of State Root as the direct delegate of the head of the government. The people of California would not oppose the coming of Mr. Root, who is one of the great men of this country, to be present as the guest of California, when the fleet arrives. In fact, they would deem it an honor to be host to him as well as to any member of the government who could spare the time to come, but they would oppose any action that meant that Secretary Root should be substituted for Secretary Metcalf on that occasion.

Of course, Secretary Root has notified the committee that he cannot come, and that settles the matter so far as he is concerned, but the affront which has been given to Secretary Metcalf by this committee, or at least by certain members of it, remains to be settled, and we hope that an investigation with the object of ascertaining who is responsible for it will be started. Metcalf is the California member of the President's cabinet and even though he were not the head of the navy he should be extended an invitation to participate in the festivities that will be held in honor of the coming of the fleet. He is a credit to this State as well as to the nation which he serves with such distinguished ability; and it is a humiliation and a disgrace that in the State of his adoption he should be made the victim of a gratuitous insult by men whose presence on the San Francisco committee appointed to receive the fleet is more the indication of political than patriotic ambition. — Nevada City Miner-Transcript.

An English tourist came upon a farm house in a remote glen. "How delightful, full to live in this solitary spot!" he remarked to the farmer. "I'm no sure about that, sir," replied the farmer. "He would've like to live to hang fifteen miles for a glass of whisky."

"Oh," said the tourist, "but you could keep a bottle."

The farmer shook his head. "Ah, man," he said, seriously, "whisky'll no keep!"

Two charming sisters who live in Tootington are engaged to two brothers, and their neighbors have been interested in this dual love affair. The young girl lives in the second flat of a house on the south side of the street, and the other day the older sister was stopped in the street by the young son of the family who occupies the second flat in the house opposite.

"Oh, Miss M—," said the small boy, trotting along at her side, as he had often done before, "my papa said last night that someone ought to tell you to pull down the blinds, 'cause if love is blind, the neighbors are not!"

"This paper," said Lancelotti Lewis, "tells about a horse running away with a woman, and she was laid up for six weeks."

"That ain't so worse," rejoined Boastful Benjamin; "a friend of mine once ran away with a horse, and he was laid up for six years."

"Jumble!" said the merchant solemnly, at the eleventh hour, "we have forgotten to get a fresh supply of stamps."

And the office-boy, in his excitement, responded with "Goodness, sir, so we have!" If we ain't a couple of blunder-headed idiots!

FIRST FALSE STEP ENDS PRETTY ROMANCE OF WEALTHY COUPLE

NEW YORK, March 6.—A romantic marriage, which New York society predicted would prove a happy one, was broken yesterday when Supreme Court Justice Davis gave Janet Logan Bayles an interlocutory decree of divorce against her husband, Howard Green Bayles, the mining engineer and clubman, of 228 Fifth avenue.

One step astray charged against the young husband by the wife, who had been prostrated ever since, led to the suit.

It was only two years ago that the couple were wedded under particularly happy circumstances, at the Brick Presbyterian Church. On the marriage night a great reception was held at the National Arts Club, in West Thirty-fourth street, with Edward Clarence Stedman, Mrs. Theodore Sutor, the Frederick Lambs and many others of the town's social elite to celebrate the nuptials.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom, to escape their friends, had climbed to the roof of the clubhouse in their wedding garments and had walked a plank across a deep away to nearby residences by way of starting on their honeymoon in secret.

A year and a half afterward, Mrs. Bayles charges, she discovered her husband's fault. The other woman concerned was not a society woman. It was charged that there had been a mistress, but the young wife, shocked and prostrated, began suit at once, in spite of her husband's pleadings, seconded by those of numerous society folk, who did their utmost to patch up the breach.

Mrs. Bayles is wealthy in her own right, having inherited a considerable portion of the $2,000,000 estate of her father, the noted lawyer, Walter Seth Logan. What her plans are for the future she will not say.

Believes Queen Alexandra 'Born Fencer'

Her Majesty Queen Alexandra has lately taken a great liking for fencing, and is now taking lessons from one of the best-known fencing masters in this country. The master in question was formerly instructor to one of the regiments of Household Cavalry, and boasts of having trained more first-class swordsmen than any other man in Europe. He describes Her Majesty as being a "born fencer," and as one who, had she taken up the art earlier in life, would have achieved great prominence at it.

CHIROGRAPHS FROM A WOMAN'S NOTEBOOK

Many people are called firm because they haven't the moral courage to acknowledge their second thoughts. One cannot enjoy solitude until the tortuous paths of society have been explored. The woman who buries her mind in poetry may live to see its resurrection in a cookbook. If you are never guilty of follies you are not quite so wise as you imagine. It is wiser to be a sufferer and a sinner, or marry and suffer a delusion.

SAY HETTY GREEN HAS DELUSIONS

Harry Payne Whitney Denies That Woman Financier Loaned Him a Million.

NEW YORK, March 6.—Financiers and the public discussed the remarkable interview given out by Mrs. Hetty Green in Boston recently. She said that during the recent panic she had loaned Harry Payne Whitney $1,000,000, had helped the New York Central Railroad Company but had refused money to the Vanderbilt family when they offered her the family jewels as security.

At the Chemical Bank, where Mrs. Green makes her headquarters during business hours, it was said that she was still in Boston. The officers of the bank refused to discuss the interview. A despatch from Boston said Mrs. Green had left for New York.

When Harry Payne Whitney was asked about Mrs. Green's statement that she had lent him a million, he said:

"Mrs. Hetty Green is a very old lady and must be suffering from delusions. I have never met her or seen her or had any financial transactions with her."

A reporter saw Mr. William K. Vanderbilt aboard the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria on the departure of the Szechenyi party for Europe.

"Will you either deny or affirm the statement attributed to Mrs. Hetty Green regarding the financial transactions of various members of your family in attempting to borrow money on jewelry?" he was asked. Vanderbilt flushed slightly, but the humor of the question appealed to him.

"You will have to ask somebody else about that. I really cannot be interviewed," he said, and fled into his flat.

Loose Effects Are Used in Newest Wraps

The newest wraps all border on loose effects, either in cape fashion or with long flower sleeves. One in rose pink cloth employs the latter edged with gold embroidery. A band of same across back, fastened to each sleeve by a large fancy button, holds in place the gathered fullness of coat. A lynx collar gives a pretty finishing touch.

Won't Let His Shirts Grow in--To Remarry

BROOKFIELD, Mass.—Agreeing to change shirts twice a week, Fredrick Chambers and his wife, Jennie, whom he was divorced two years ago, are to be remarried. At the time of the divorce Mrs. Chambers testified that her husband was in the habit of donning a shirt and keeping it on continually until it was worn out, when it would be discarded like an old porous plaster. Chambers' agreement has been filed with the court, and he has bought a supply of new shirts. The remarriage takes place tomorrow.

TRAVEL, BUSINESS AND ABSENCE ADVISED AS CURES FOR LOVE

A man in search of this view can find it everywhere. Addison said that "Beauty soon grows familiar to the lover, fades in his eye, and falls upon the senses; and Hazlitt, that "Though familiarity may not breed contempt, it takes the edge off admiration." Goethe said, "With most marriages it does not take long for things to assume a very piteous look." But none of these men married happily. Goldsmith said: "Many of the English marry in order to have one happy month in their lives." And Colley Cibber: "Oh, how many torments lie in the small circle of a wedding ring!" But, undoubtedly, the best way to get rid of one's love is to have another. "All love may be expelled by love, as poisons are by other poisons," says Dryden. Heine says: "The most effective antidote to woman is woman. In such a case the medicine is often it is, at any rate, a change, and in a disconsolate love affair a change in the inamorata is unquestionably the best policy."

SCRATCHES FROM A MAN'S NOTEBOOK

First love is the most beautiful thing in life—just so long as it remains first. A short life and merry one means a short life and a sad one for our children. Make a living first; make love afterward. The man who believes a woman can't keep a secret should ask it. The only way to overcome an evil is to fight it; if you try to put behind you it will stab you in the back. The man who thinks the world grows worse is generally the man who has acquired a little fresh wickedness.

NE WYORK, Mar. 2.—Cupid's monthly trade journal for February, 1908, is out, although it is not for sale at all the news stands. It is a matrimonial agency publication, which coyly announces that it is "devoted to the interests of the unmarried."

The paper is one of the many kinds in the great matrimonial-booming industry, which seems to have become as firmly established in Chicago and vicinity as the leather and harness business or sale of gas ranges.

The paper is a sort of clearing house for yearning souls, mostly bachelors, means being several pages devoted to "personals." In these advertisements the charms of the lonely of either sex are related in fervid terms. Preposterous and Ridiculous Devoid of Truth SAYS PRIMA DONNA About Wedding Announcement

NEW YORK, March 6.—"Ridiculous, preposterous, devoid of even an atom of truth," was the manner in which Miss Bessie Abbott, the prima donna, characterized the report that she might wed.

The report arose through the arrival in New York of Walter Story, the artist, about Mr. Story and myself originated I cannot imagine. My mother, sister and I have been on very friendly terms with Mr. Story, his brother and Mme. Eames for years, but I have no intention of marrying Mr. Story or anybody else. "I am wedded to my art, and just now my mind is entirely occupied with thoughts of my suit for $50,000 against Mr. Confield for breach of contract and his counter suit against me."

FIRST FALSE STEP ENDS PRETTY ROMANCE OF WEALTHY COUPLE

NEW YORK, March 6.—A romantic marriage, which New York society predicted would prove a happy one, was broken yesterday when Supreme Court Justice Davis gave Janette Logan Bayles an interlocutory decree of divorce against her husband, Howard Green Bayles, the mining engineer and clubman, of 226 Fifth avenue.

One step astray charged against the young husband by the wife, who has been prostrated ever since, led to the suit.

It was only two years ago that the couple were wedded, under particularly happy circumstances, at the Brick Presbyterian Church. On the marriage night a great reception was held at the National Arts Club, in West Thirty-fourth street, with Edmund Clarence Steadman, Mrs. Theodore Sutro, the Frederick Lambs and many others of the town's social elite to celebrate the nuptials.

During the evening the bride and bridegroom, to escape their friends, had climbed to the roof of the clubhouse in their wedding garments and had walked a plank across a deep crevice to nearly resounded by way of starting on their honeymoon in secret.

A year and a half afterward, Mrs. Bayles charges, she discovered her husband's fault. The other woman concerned was not a society woman. It was charged that there had been but one misstep, but the young wife, shocked and prostrated, began suit at once, in spite of her husband's pleadings, seconded by those of numerous society folk, who did their utmost to patch up the breach.

Mrs. Bayles is wealthy in her own right, having inherited a considerable portion of the $2,000,000 estate of her father, the noted lawyer, Walter Seth Logan. What her plans are for the future she will not say.

Travel, business and absence advised as cures for love.

A man in search of this view can find it everywhere. Addison said that "Beauty soon grows familiar to the lover, fades in his eye, and falls upon the sense," and Hazlitt, that "Though familiarity may not breed contempt, it takes the edge off admiration."

Goethe said, "With most marriages it does not take long for things to assume a very piteous look." But none of these men married happily. Goldsmith said: "Many of the English marry in order to have one happy month in their lives." And Colley Cibber: "Oh, how many torments lie in the small circle of a wedding ring!"

But, undoubtedly, the best way to get rid of one love is to have another. "All love may be expelled by love," says Dryden. Helms says: "The most effective antidote to woman is woman. In such a case the medicine is often more noxious than the malady; but it is, at any rate, a change, and in a disconsolate love affair a change in the ingredients is unquestionably the best policy."

TRAVEL, BUSINESS AND ABSENCE ADVISED AS CURES FOR LOVE

Absence is one of the means of curing love. Two thousand years ago Ovid advised his readers who wished to cure themselves of an unlucky attachment to flee the capital, to travel, hunt, or till the soil. "Love," said Coleridge, "is a local anguish. I am fifty miles away, and not half so miserable." But other men have found absence increases love. La Rochefoucauld probably hit upon the truth when he said that "Absence destroys weak passions but increases strong ones, as the wind extinguishes a candle but blows up a fire." If the love is all fancy and has little strength, it may be cured by personal contact with the object. But the safer plan, perhaps, is to keep out of the way. Hence travel is a good expedient. Business, perhaps, is a better one. Ovid said: "If you desire to end your love employ yourself, and you will conquer, for love flees business."

Still another expedient is reflection upon the unhappiness of married life.

CHIROGRAPHS FROM A WOMAN'S NOTEBOOK

Many people are called firm because they haven't the moral courage to acknowledge their second thoughts.

One cannot enjoy solitude until the tortuous paths of society have been explored.

The woman who buries her mind in poetry may live to see its resurrection in a cookbook.

If you are never guilty of follies you are not quite so wise as you imagine. Is it wiser to be single and suffer an illusion, or marry and suffer a delusion?

SCRATCHES FROM A MAN'S NOTEBOOK

First love is the most beautiful thing in life—just so long as it remains first.

A short life and marry one means a short life and a sad one for your children.

Make a living first; make love afterward.

The man who believes a woman can't keep a secret should ask her age.

The only way to overcome any evil is to fight it. If you try to put it behind you it will stab you in the back.

The man who thinks the world is growing worse is generally the man who has acquired a little fresh wickedness.

CUPID'S TRADE JOURNAL LONELY WOMEN'S MEDIUM

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—Cupid's monthly trade journal for February, 1908, is out, although it is not for sale at all the news stands. It is a matrimonial agency publication, which coyly announces that it is "devoted to the interests of the unmarried."

The paper is one of the many kinds in the great matrimonial-booming industry, which seems to have become as firmly established in Chicago and vicinity as the leather and harness business or sale of gas ranges.

The paper is a sort of clearing house for yearning souls, mostly bucolic, the means being several pages devoted to "personals." In these advertisements the charms of the lonely of either sex are related in fervid terms. In column 1, page 1, is "our price list," in which the potency of the almighty dollar—or 25 cents, as the case may be—is shown to extend into lovers' lane. Every advertisement is numbered, it seems, and the name and address are secrets of the "editor." Here are the prices of addresses of women to men:

"FRAT" MEN SAY BERKELEY OFFICIALS ARE NEGLIGENT

Urge the Trustees to Provide Sanitation

BERKELEY, March 6.—Declaring that the sum of $40,000 is urgently needed and that the police department cannot properly carry on the work of sanitation, unless advised and assisted by experts, the Sigma Xi committee on plague of the State University has issued a comprehensive report of the result of the investigation of its members on the sanitary situation in Berkeley up to date. The college men do not hesitate to declare that there is an apathy on the part of the town officials, which presages peril to the public unless changed. Here are some of the recommendations made:

1. That an emergency fund should be provided by the citizens of Berkeley large enough to begin and carry on, in accordance with the plan suggested by Dr. Long, a vigorous fight against rats and existing sanitary conditions.

2. That since $1500 of this money is available the work should be started at once with a small force of men, additional men being added as fast as sufficient money can be secured.

3. That this money be expended by the citizens' committee under the direction of Dr. Long, who has offered his aid.

4. That the citizens of Berkeley

ROBBED FRIEND TO KEEP HER SOCIAL STANDING

Police State Woman Confessed to the $20,000 Jewel Theft.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
NEW YORK, March 6.—Charged with the theft of jewels valued at $20,000 from one of her wealthy friends, Mrs. Jeanette Newmann, who lives at the Stratford House, this city, was locked up at police headquarters today. The police say Mrs. Newmann had made a full confession and told them she was actuated by her desire to keep her young son in a private school and to maintain her own social position.

The jewels were owned by Mrs. Evelyn Bell, who lives in Central Park West, and also has a home at Port Chester.

According to the story given out after Mrs. Newmann's arrest today, Mrs. Newmann was introduced to Mrs. Bell last October and became a frequent caller. After several of these calls Mrs. Bell missed articles of jewelry.

Admits Theft.
Detectives were notified and met Mrs. Newmann at the Bell home. After they had talked with her a few minutes they requested her to accompany her to her room at the hotel and she complied. After questioning, Mrs. Newmann went to a closet in the room, got a suit case and from it took twenty pawn tickets, which she told the detectives represented the articles which had disappeared from Mrs. Bell's home.

When Mrs. Newmann was arraigned in police court, she gave her name as Jane Norton. She was released on $20,000 bail.

The acreage is thickly timbered with a large growth of redwood and is considered one of the finest sections in the State.

SHOT TO DEATH AT HIS FIRST ATTEMPT

Young Man Slain After Holding Up Saloon Is Identified.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The footpad who was shot and instantly killed by Policeman No. 1230 at 12:30 o'clock this morning, after he had held up Tiedemann's saloon at Gough and McAllister streets, has been identified by the police as Lee Dunbar, alias C. E. Willis.

The man's identity was made known through the name C. E. Willis, which was faintly marked on the top of a small account book found in his pocket. He is a recent arrival in this city from Michigan and has served an enlistment in the United States marine corps.

After his discharge he aspired to be an actor. He played in the cheap concert halls on the Barbary Coast for some nights, but is thought not to have been a success. He had an appointment with Archie Levy and E. Priest, the latter booking agent of the Empire Theater, for today.

He is not known to have been in trouble before and it is probable that lack of money led him to attempt robbery.

GRACE GEORGE SCORES SUCCESS IN "DIVORCONS"

"Gingerbread Man" and "Black Crook" Coming to Macdonough.

"Divorcons" serves well to display the engaging talent of Miss Grace George. Tonight, tomorrow afternoon and evening will conclude Miss George's engagement at the Macdonough.

W. A. GRAHN.

W. A. Grahn Is Guest of Honor at Banquet Given by His Fellow Workers.

In the social life of those composing THE TRIBUNE family there has long been a custom of welcoming the coming and speeding the parting guest. Last evening witnessed a pleasant observance of the latter feature of the practice, in the formal farewell, which was bidden by the proprietor and attaches of all the departments of this paper, to Walter A. Grahn, who for a number of years has acted in a most efficient manner as the secretary and cashier of The Tribune Publishing Company.

Mr. Grahn has become associated with a manufacturing enterprise in St. Louis and, in a few days, will leave to enter upon the duties in the new field which offers an opportunity for development and financial reward of a most encouraging character.

The parting took place in the banquet hall of the Key Route Inn, after an appetizing menu had been discussed and wit and sentiment had been indulged in on the part of guest as well as hosts.

Speeds the Parting Guest.

J. E. Baker, chief editorial writer on THE TRIBUNE, was toastmaster. His remarks both at the opening of the feast and in introducing the gentlemen representing the various departments of this paper, were timely, witty and practical. They were delivered in so informal, yet so unctuous a manner as to arouse the enthusiasm of all present.

On Mr. Baker's left sat W. E. Dargie, the proprietor of THE TRIBUNE, and on his right, the guest of the evening. The tables outlined a capital "T" and on either side sat the professional associates of the departing guest.

While a number of entertaining stories were told which set the table in a roar, the chief topics considered were the faith to, and the ability displayed by Mr. Grahn while connected with THE TRIBUNE, coupled, of course, with an expression of the kindest wishes for his unlimited success in his new field of endeavor.

Regrets His Going.

The most eloquent of the efforts in this respect was that of Mr. W. E. Dargie himself, who, while regretting to sever relations with Mr. Grahn, was unwilling in any manner, to prevent the gentleman from realizing success in a project of a most ambitious character.

Others were made by J. Clem Arnold, A. Dole, H. A. Herrick, Harry Parratt, P. H. Lloyd, Edward A. O'Brien, Frank Pratt, V. D. Stuart, G. Larsen, D. R. Wiley, A. T. MacDonald, Frank Billington, G. S. McDowell and Roy Nesbitt.

Grahn Deeply Affected.

Mr. Grahn was visibly affected by the encomiums pronounced on every hand. He said it was a pain to withdraw from association with employer and fellow-workers between whom existed the keener of reciprocal appreciation of the members of a large harmonious family. But the parting would not be for always. He would return, he said, after success had been achieved, because to him Oakland was the dearest spot in the world which he had seen.

The Menu.

The menu was as follows:
Key Route Ruby Cocktail
Blue Points on Half Shell
Olive Chicken Consomme Printaniere
Escallopes of Sea Bass Normandie
Potatoes Duchesse
Cucumber Salad
Filet of Beef Larded, Portuguese
Roman Punch
Rolled Spring Chicken on Toast
Brown New Potatoes
French Peas
Heart of Lettuce Salad
Assorted Fancy Ice Cream Cakes

On the reverse of the card was a fac-simile of a TRIBUNE check for nearly three thousand dollars, bearing a souvenir autograph of W. A. Grahn as secretary of The Tribune Publishing Company. The amount representing the weekly bill of THE TRIBUNE for the single item of paper on which this journal is printed.

The Guests.
W. E. Dargie, J. E. Baker, H. A. Herrick, J. R. Cassell, J. C. Arnold, W. A. Grahn, Edward A. O'Brien, F. H. Lloyd, S. Pratt, S. Stuart, H. V. Parratt, C. Trish, R. Feder, E. Buchanan, E. Abbey, J. DETECTIVE GOES TO BRING MRS. MARTIN FOR TRIAL

"Baby" John Taken Along to Be Freed

"Baby John" Martin, much to his regret, started on his return to Weaverville this afternoon in company with District Attorney Hall of Trinity county and St. Clair Hodgkins, the detective being armed with papers for the legal removal of Mrs. Martin to this city, where she will face trial on a charge of dynamiting the home of Superior Judge Ogden.

The woman will be brought here under the indictment found against her by the grand jury. She will be in the custody of the city officials despite the fact that her removal from the Trinity county jail was made possible through the action of county officers. The testimony, however, on which the indictment issued, was prepared and presented by the city officials under the direction and supervision of Captain of Detectives Brewster. The local police feel assured that the woman will be convicted of the serious charge against her.

Boy to Return.

As soon as the necessary legal steps are taken to have the charge of arson pending at Weaverville against the boy dismissed, he will return to Oakland to give testimony against the woman who has called mother throughout the sixteen years of his eventful life. He has no hesitancy in giving this damning testimony and, boy like, is rather inclined to feel proud over the notoriety he has gained through his connection with the sensational case.

"Baby John" admits that he has had an exceedingly good time since his arrival in Oakland. He has frequently told the police that he feels like a different person since being released from the influence of his reputed mother, whom he accuses of having led him into a path of crime with threats of death if he wandered from the path marked out for him.

Prisoner in Name Only.

He was a prisoner in name only while in Oakland. He has been in prison but a few hours since his arrival from Weaverville, has taken all his meals at restaurants and has accompanied the police on official calls throughout the city. He has been kindly dealt with by all of the police officials and seems to appreciate what has been done for him.

The boy and Captain of Police Dock turned out to be great friends. He was recently by Captain Dock, where he enjoyed himself heartily. A few nights ago he accompanied the police in an automobile run for the arrest of a woman wanted on a charge of selling liquor without a license. The boy was heartily amused over the fact that the woman was too much for the police to handle, she weighing 250 pounds. Because of her weight, the police were unable to get her in jail, she having refused to accompany them without being carried.

"Baby" John Martin Has New Guardian

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—A. J. Todd, probation officer of San Francisco, has been appointed guardian of "Baby" John Martin by Judge Graham in place of his reputed mother, Isabella Martin. Todd's bond was fixed at $500.

Mrs. Martin was removed from her position as guardian on the ground that she was unfit to fill it and that she had mismanaged the estate. The petition asking for her removal, assigned her indictment in Trinity county for arson and in Alameda county for trying to blow up Judge Ogden's house as the specific reasons for her unfitness.

The estate involved consists of a lot and two houses in Oakland, valued at $500.

Mrs. Martin was given ten days by the court in which to show cause why her removal should not be permanent. She will be brought to Oakland for trial.

The sanitation committee is increasing its staff of inspectors and poison distributors. The City Council appropriated $3000 Monday night for expanding operations and promised that more coin would be forthcoming when required.

BERKELEY HAS NO PLACE NOW TO DUMP GARBAGE; TRUSTEES IN QUANDARY

Angry Residents With Shotgun Threats Cut Off Sources of Disposition of College Town's Refuse.

BERKELEY, March 6.—The town trustees seem to be unable to solve the garbage question. The controversy was further complicated this morning by the action of Trustee Schmidt in revoking the permit he granted three days ago to use his tide lands at the foot of Gilman street as a dump. Schmidt is the representative from Seventh Ward and it was the expressed determination of the residents in the north end of his ward to resort to shotguns to prevent dumping on the shore land near Corbin station that caused him to change his mind.

In consequence there is another strike on the part of the scavengers who, finding themselves without a place to unload their wagons this morning, again refused to remove a load. On all sides is descending a flood of petitions for the trustees who are blamed for not foreseeing the complications that have arisen. The board in a special meeting last night passed to print an ordinance calling for a $75,000 bond issue to erect a new crematory and acquire a piece of land on which to build it, but this does not relieve the temporary embarrassment of finding a dumping ground. It will be some months before the crematory will be in action, providing the bond issue carries.

Scurry for Site.

There was wild scurrying all morning on the part of the Board of Health and the trustees to secure temporary dumping conveniences. Mayor Ferrier and Dr. Frank R. Woolsey at noon decided to make another appeal to the California Powder Company to use the marshes to the north of McKeever hill, from which the scavengers were driven a week ago under threats of violence from the members of the Contra Costa Improvement Club and other residents about the county line. They were met with a curt refusal.

Will Not Examine Rats. The chamber of commerce has called a special meeting of its directors for this evening to urge that barges be used, the loads to be carried through the Golden Gate and fed to the fishes somewhere near the Fatalones.

Naumie the university laboratory has refused to examine any more rats because the town refuse to provide $75 to furnish Dr. Ward and his assistants with a mosquito proof temporary building. Dr. Ward made this request through the members of the health board last night, declaring that he and his assistants were overworked with rat inspection and deploring that it would be impossible to carry on the work unless funds were provided for a small special building to make the tests of the rodents.

Mayor Ferrier and Trustees Olsen and Gompertz were in favor of granting the appropriation, but Trustee Conner talked it to death by a counter resolution to have the poundman take charge of the disposition of the dead rats.

Halsey Trial Is Again Postponed

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—Judge Doan, sitting for Judge Dunne, this morning continued the case of Theodore V. Halsey for one week on the representation of Attorney Schlesinger, his counsel, to the effect that he is confined to his home and too ill to appear in court. The cases of Eugene E. Schmitz, charged with bribery, and Luther O. Brown, accused of subornation of perjury, went over for one week.

Mis-trial in Poison Case: San Diego.—The jury disagreed in the case of Dennis O'Neil, an old man charged with murdering Thomas Kelly and Peter McManus, by giving them strychnine in their food, at Delmar.

United States-Mexican Treaty: WASHINGTON.—A treaty of amultation between the United States and Mexico has been agreed upon and will be signed in a few days by Secretary Root on behalf of the United States and Senator Dan Jones F. Conroy, the acting first secretary and chargé d'affaires of Mexico in the absence of Ambassador Creel. It is said that the treaty will follow the same lines as that negotiated with France recently and ratified by the senate.

BURBANK DA Y OBSERVED IN BERKELEY SCHOOLS

Tree Planted by Hillside
Pupils

BERKELEY, March 6.—An English walnut tree, eight feet high and of an excellence in product, assured by Luther Burbank, the plant and fruit wizard, was planted this afternoon in the grounds of the Hillside school in North Berkeley. The exercises were held under the auspices of the members of Berkeley Parlor No. 153, Native Daughters of the Golden West, and were in observance of "Burbank Day" or "Arbor Day," which has been annually celebrated for the past few years by these women.

Sent by Burbank.

The tree was sent direct from Burbank to Mrs. William Luhr, president of the parlor, who in turn supervised the arrangement for its planting and directed the ceremonies connected with it.

All the pupils of the Hillside school, under the direction of Mrs. Elmer Carlisle, president of the Mothers' Club, connected with it, assisted in the exercises. Before and after the actual planting there were songs and carols. R. E. Mansells of the botanical department of the State University delivered an address on the significance of the event. There was a large audience of mothers of the school children and members of the Native Daughters' Parlor.

Evening will be given at the same place, but the date has not yet been definitely settled.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Furber of Rahway, New Jersey, spent Wednesday in Berkeley as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wilson at their home on College avenue.

"JUDGE" FERNBACH
IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Physician Says Popular Alameda Sanitarium Is Threatened With Pneumonia.

ALAMEDA, March 6.—Moritz Fernbach, dean of the junior corps of the school department, having wielded the duster and broom for more than a quarter of a century, is seriously ill at the Alameda Sanitarium, where he was taken a few days ago by kind friends after a physician had examined the old man and said that he was threatened with pneumonia.

Fernbach is affectionately known as "Judge" to thousands of Alamedans who attended the public schools during the last twenty-five years. The title was bestowed upon him because of his characteristic dignified demeanor. He is a man of education and a musical note.

SCHOOL CHILDREN PLANT
POPPIES ON ARBOR DAY

State Emblem Is Sewn All Over Alameda.

ALAMEDA, March 6.—Today was observed here as arbor day by the public schools. Large quantities of seeds of the California poppy, which had been distributed to the pupils by the civics section of the Adelphi Club, were planted on the school grounds and in many vacant lots throughout the city.

Exercises were held at all of the schools. Professor C. A. Wickson of the department of agriculture of the University of California, addressed the students of the Alameda High School this afternoon and urged his hearers to cultivate an interest in plant life, particularly in trees and flowers.

The principals of the Grammar schools had all arranged appropriate programs, and short talks on the meaning and importance of arbor day were made to the pupils by teachers. There has been the custom of the school department to observe March 7, Luther Burbank's birthday, as arbor day, but the date falls on Saturday this year. The superintendent of schools decided to have the exercises held today.

— right now is your chance to get a high-grade piano; we're closing out four stores

Never Heretofore, and We Are Sure Never Again, Will Prices Be So Low

High-grade pianos were never so low before. We have got to get rid of them. The spirit of this organization is progress, advancement.

At the inception of the new building project on Market street it was our plan to continue the four stores which we are now closing out. With this plan in view an entirely separate, complete, new stock was ordered for the new store. This stock is now arriving.

The general curtailment of banking facilities from commercial enterprises has compelled us to change our plans and close out two of our stores in San Francisco and one each in Berkeley and Oakland before entering the new building. We expect to open the new store at 975, etc., Market street, Monday, March 16th.

NOT A QUESTION OF PROFIT NOW.
Profit is out of all consideration. We shall be satisfied to leave that to the future. So long as we secure the bare factory cost, we shall be the gainers. All new pianos are priced upon this basis. Numerous slightly used ones can be had at virtually the buyer's own price.

EASY TERMS.
If you are not quite ready to purchase now, we will make terms to suit. A little down and a little each month will now buy the choicest piano it is possible to secure anywhere.

BREWERS PLANNING TO WAGE A FIGHT

Campaign of Publicity to Offset Strictures Made by Prohibition.

CHICAGO, March 6.—A campaign of publicity to counteract the effect of the present prohibition wave was decided upon by the board of trustees of the United States Brewers' Association at a meeting held here yesterday.

The meeting was attended by Col. Gustave Pabst of Milwaukee, Edward A. Faust of St. Louis, and other leading brewers from all parts of the country. The object of the gathering was to extend the work of the organization committee now going on all over the country under the auspices of the association.

Many of the brewers had just returned from a big brewers' meeting in New Orleans, and reports were given from a number of Southern States, Kentucky, Georgia, Alabama and Texas, showing that prohibition in town that have gone "dry" in these States has been a failure.

Thorough Investigations.

The board decided to investigate conditions all over the country with reference to the liquor business, both in "open" and in "dry" communities, and to publish the results for the benefit of the country. Literature on the economic aspects of the business and other phases of the traffic will be prepared by the organization committee and distributed in every city and community.

Julius Liebmann of New York, president of the association, presided. Arrangements were completed for the annual convention to be held in Milwaukee on June 6-7. On account of the illness of A. C. G. Hupfel of New York, treasurer of the association, George Ehret Jr. of New York, was elected temporary treasurer.

ASK SWEEPING CHANGES IN BANK EXAMINING

Legislative Committee Favors Districting the State Under Chief Examiners.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—At the next session of the legislature it is probable that the banking committee will recommend a new method of bank examining.

Among the sweeping changes contemplated is the districting of the State, with a chief examiner to each district, who will have complete authority under him, and submit all reports to the chairman of the bank commission, who is to issue certificates to the various banks.

Leading bankers have made suggestions to the joint committee at yesterday's meeting, when the following attended: William C. Rife, president of the Mercantile Trust Company, and Cashier and Vice-President John D. McKee of the same institution; I. W. Hillman, vice-president and manager of the Union Trust Company, and E. Z. Tognazzini, manager of the Central Trust Company.

FIRST WARD REPUBLICAN CLUB IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Is Doing Much for Improvement of District.

The First Ward Republican Club held a meeting in its new headquarters, 1414 Glen avenue, last evening. George Dennison presiding and Frank M. Shattuck acting as secretary. So large was the organization become and there was so much interest and enthusiasm displayed by its members that they have had a hall erected for their use.

The executive committee reported that the city authorities had acted favorably on the case of the First Ward, and that the club had been asked for on Piedmont avenue. This information was received with a great deal of enthusiasm, as the residents of that district have been put to a great deal of trouble and inconvenience in muddy weather in getting to and from the club. Several members spoke on the advisability of having this district a model of purity in a sanitary sense. A committee of five was appointed to act in conjunction with the sanitary committee of this district for that purpose.

A number of new members signed the roll and they were as enthusiastic as the older members are in all matters that concern the improvement of the ward, either politically or by public improvement.

WOULD IMPROVE THE LAWS ON REFORMING OF MINORS

State Board of Charities Calls Meeting for Discussion.

The State Board of Charities and Corrections is investigating itself in regard to improvements in the State laws relating to the trial and conviction of wayward minors. A large number of members of the board met at the State Capitol building on March 21 to discuss the statutes relating to juveniles and to receive suggestions for bettering the present unsatisfactory condition of affairs.

Invitations have been issued to superintendents, district attorneys, probation officers and reform school superintendents and trustees to interest themselves in this matter. It is particularly desired to change the laws relating to juvenile courts, probation and reform schools.

It is thought by some that the juvenile court law and the Whittier school law are unconstitutional because they deprive the child of a trial by jury and take from the superior judges the power of appointing probation officers. To determine this matter is one of the board's principal objects in calling the meeting.

Cottolene

Shortens your food Lengthens your life

Cottolene is a cleanly, wholesome product. It is made from cotton-seed oil, in a thoroughly modern and hygienic manner, and is just as pure as olive oil. It, moreover, makes palatable, digestible, healthful food which will agree with the most delicate stomach. Lard food on the contrary, is indigestible, and will cause trouble if its use is persisted in.

Cottolene is endorsed by the most prominent cooks and household economists of the country, as well as by those of the medical profession who make a special study of pure food. There is no substitute for Cottolene, because there is no shortening so good as Cottolene. It stands alone, as everyone who has used it according to directions will verify.

Cottolene is Guaranteed We hereby authorize your grocer to refund your money in case you're not pleased after having given COTTOLENE a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk COTTOLENE is packed in pails with a patent air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome; also to prevent it from absorbing the disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

Y.W.C.A. SINGERSTORENDER "THE LADY OF SHALOTT"

ALL READY FOR TENNYSON NIGHT

Interesting Program in Store for All Lovers of Classical Compositions.

The general public will have an opportunity of hearing tomorrow evening at the Unitarian Church "The Lady of Shalott," the beautiful Tennysonian cantata, written for women's voices by Randall.

The music is wonderfully expressive. The story of Lancelot, the march of the plumed knight and the tragic end of the enchanted Lady of Shalott will interest every reader of the English bard. The chorus is under the direction of Mrs. Florence Verge Mills, with Uda Waldrop at the piano.

The "Song of the Wrens" is a cycle that Tennyson wrote in 1870 for Sullivan to set to music. The setting which he gave it is poetical and sparkling with particularly brilliant accompaniments.

The "Maid" cycle by Somerwell, from which two selections will be given, is of later date and also well known.

Following is the program:
Part I—Song Cycle from "Maud" (Somerwell): (a) "Under the Cedar Tree," (b) "Dead Long Dead," Mrs. J. S. Mills. Readings: (a) "Defense of Lucknow," (b) Brief and Well-Known Songs, Dr. William Hermon Hopkins; song cycle, "The Songs of the Wrens" (Sullivan): (a) "The Frost Is Here," (b) "Where Is Another Sweet as My Sweet," (c) "The Mist and the Rain," Miss Muriel Gerrard. Mr. Harry W. Baldwin; organ: (a) Pastoral from Second Symphony; (b) "Aria's Tod" from Peer Gynt Suite, Mr. Uda Waldrop.

Part II—"The Lady of Shalott," a Cantata by Wilfred Benda, director, Mrs. Florence Verge Mills; pianist, Mr. Uda Waldrop, soloists, Mrs. F.

IMPROVERS PLAN A RAT CRUSADE

North Adeline People Are Eager to Stamp Out All Infection.

"Get busy!" was the slogan of the rat crusaders as represented by Dr. William Jackson and Dr. E. Lee Burch Wednesday night at a meeting of the North Adeline Improvement Club.

That the sympathy of the members of this bustling club was with the movement and with its leaders was evidenced by the intense interest depicted upon each face and by the volley of intelligent questions that the speakers were called upon to answer at the conclusion of their respective speeches.

Dr. Jackson spoke on the history of infection. He began with biblical times and traced it down to the present epidemic.

Describes Disease.

Then Dr. Burch spoke on preventive personal and community measures. He urged cleanliness and the use of pure foods. In speaking of those who doubted the presence of the disease he said that it would be well to place them in a room with an infected rat and then observe how quickly the scroffers would take to the mountains or the morgue. Continuing, Dr. Burch said: "The disease is of four kinds, namely, bubonic (most common), pneumonic, which attacks the lungs, the septicemic or blood poisoning, and the intestinal, which is always fatal. It is communicated to people by the flea, who receives its infection from the rat; or, in some cases, infection is derived from rat infected foods. The disease has never been introduced into new countries by human cases; therefore, Mr. Rat is to be credited. That much good is being accomplished by this method of appealing to the people directly by such able men as Drs. Jackson and Burch is being recognized by all, and each day new converts are being made and are giving their voices and energy to the pushing forward of the battle."

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

Itching, disfiguring eruptions, rashes, boils, etc., as well as pimples, black-heads and rough, scaly skin, show the presence of some irritating humor in the blood. These acids and humors with which the blood is infected are being constantly thrown off through the pores and glands of the skin, and the flesh is kept in an inflamed, diseased and unsightly condition. Nothing applied externally can change the condition of the blood or prevent the outflow of these burning acids; only constitutional treatment can do this. Washes, salves, lotions, etc., cannot reach the humor-laden blood, and are therefore useless, except for the temporary comfort and cleanliness they afford. The acid poison in the blood must be removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. is a real blood purifier, possessing all the requirements necessary to neutralize and remove the humors from the circulation. It completely eradicates every trace of impurity and restores this vital fluid to its natural healthy state. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated blood so that instead of pouring out acid matter on the skin, it feeds and nourishes it with health-sustaining properties, and then the eruptions and diseases of the skin pass away. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free.

PROMINENT PEOPLE AT DEL MONTE HOTEL

Pleasure Seekers From All Over
World Now at the Resort.

DEL MONTE, March 6.—On Saturday the population of the hotel was augmented by the advent of two large excursion parties and in the evening there was another dance in the art gallery. About twenty couples from the Pacific Coast Monterey dining in the hotel afterwards joined the dancers.

Among the guests that arrived during the week were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Merriam of Marinette, Wis. Mr. Merriam was here just a year ago when his sister, Miss Amy Merriam, now Mrs. Carl D. Green, was married in the pretty little Del Monte chapel.

Joseph White, proprietor of the Marlborough-Blenheim Hotel at Atlantic City, which is said to be the finest concrete hotel in the United States, arrived early in the week. Mr. White is accompanied by Mrs. White and Miss White.

Guests From London.

There have been at the hotel for a couple of months three young Englishmen, P. B. Waller, W. A. Holland and J. Goodland, all three of London. They had intended when they arrived to remain but a few weeks, but have been so charmed with the golf links and other attractions at Del Monte that two of them have decided to remain on indefinitely. The third, Mr. Holland, departed on Monday for his home in England.

Monterey entertained a distinguished visitor last Monday in the person of Lieutenant John Charles Fremont, U. S. N., a grandson of General Fremont, who led the first United States flag in California, and who was a leading figure in the conquering of this territory in 1846. The occasion of this visit was the anniversary of the death of General Fremont, and Mrs. Edward Kirkpatrick went to San Francisco for a few days last week, but have returned and will spend the remainder of their stay in America at Del Monte, returning to their home in Paris the latter part of the present month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Howard, prominent members of the golf club in Chicago, are spending a few weeks here and enjoying the links.

Miss Green of San Francisco spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hoge. Mr. Hoge is a prominent Seattle banker.

Mrs. Henry Sjodam came down from Seattle last week to await the coming of friends from Cuba.

Other visitors from Seattle include Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McLaren, Ernest Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. T. Rudow, G. O. Grey and Mr. and Mrs. F. McDermott.

Many Eastern Visitors.

Mr. George F. Hook of Denver, who comes to Del Monte every year, is here for a month's stay.

George L. Anderson of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Robbins of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Crozier, J. F. Crozier and the Misses Crozier of Upland, Penn.; Miss Eleanor Bartol, Attorne Robinson of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Ballie and Miss Ballie of Tacoma, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Carman and their son from Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Corryell, after spending a month here, have returned to their home at Fair Oaks, but with the expressed intention of returning here later for another visit.

San Franciscans Leave.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Parker Whitney, Mrs. M. C. Low and Miss Flora Low, Miss Ella Morgan, Clinton E. Worden, Dr. and Mrs. S. D. Bragdon, Dr. and Mrs. Anderson have returned to San Francisco.

Among the arrivals at the Pacific Grove Hotel during the week were A. C. Bassett of Menlo Park, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woodrow, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Zales of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. B. Whilden and V. V. Rogers, whose homes are in Boston, and Mrs. S. A. Dusenbury of Asbury Park, N. J., who, accompanied by Miss Berntha Kunkle of Harrisburg, Pa., are spending a week at the Pacific Grove prior to her departure for Pasadena.

PROCTOR'S SON TO NAME
SENATOR'S SUCCESSOR

Must Appoint Another to Office
Although Candidate Himself.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The death of Senator Proctor has created an unusual situation in Vermont where his eldest son, Fletcher, is governor. It is the first time in its history that the country that a son has been called upon to appoint a successor to his father in the United States Senate.

The situation is more complicated owing to the wish of Senator Proctor that his eldest son, Fletcher, the present governor of Vermont, should succeed him at the expiration of his term. In the present situation this is impossible, as the governor must appoint another. The Legislature of Vermont does not meet until October, when the successor will be elected.

DRISCOLL AGREES TO FIGHT ABLE ATTELL

JOHNSON CONSENTS TO MEET BURNS IN LONDON

JEM DRISCOLL MAY MEET ATTELL IN SAN FRANCISCO

England's Premier Fighter May Be Seen Here--Eddie Hanlon Wants to Break Back Into Fight Game.

By EDDIE SMITH.

Luke Marsh has made arrangements to import one of the greatest little fighters that England has produced in years for his show during the month of April. Jem Driscoll is the fighter, and the English press, which has been lavish in its praise of the little fellow's work, is responsible for the information that he is the best of the featherweights that has been turned out in the light little title.

At the time that Moran was on the coast and being called the champion of England, some of the English writers took exception to the Britisher being referred to as the champion, several pointing to the fact that Driscoll was the champion, and gave as their reason for believing that Driscoll was the best fighter the fact that he had received a decision over Joe Bowker in fifteen rounds and had also knocked Bowker out in seventeen rounds.

Bowker was the recognized champion of England and just two years previous to the time that he lost to Driscoll he had won a decision from Moran at the National Sporting Club.

Moran is always claimed to be the referee made a mistake in that contest, but the record stands and certainly he could not have had any of the worst of the going to receive the decision.

It is Marsh's intention to match Driscoll with Abe Attell for a twenty round contest at the featherweight limit, which would mean that the new promoter would have a world's championship event to dish up to the fans on his date.

Driscoll is to be allowed a guarantee of $1500, win, lose or draw, and all his expenses. Attell was offered a contest with the Britisher in London but the money always has something to do with the places where fighters like to appear, and as Able is far and away too smart to even think he could get as much money in England as he could in San Francisco the contest will in all probability be pulled off here.

Eddie Hanlon in Training.

Eddie Hanlon, who for many years was the most popular little fighter in all this country, and who in all his battles never once failed to give the people who paid admission to see him a good honest hard fought contest, has made up his mind that he is not to be counted among those who have entirely passed their day of usefulness in the ring.

Hanlon called on the writer the other day and announced that he was working every day in the gymnasium and taking short trips on the road when the weather permitted.

Eddie points to the fact that he has never been knocked out and that every time he lost he was standing on his feet. "It may be that the contest was stopped to save me, but the fact still remains that I was never knocked out," says the former slashing lightweight.

Hanlon goes on to say that he is just rounding his twenty-third birthday and that he is convinced that he will be stronger than he ever was before if he goes through the seige of preparatory training that he intends taking.

"All I want is a little encouragement," says Eddie, "and I will hike away to the mountains where I will put in many hard days climbing the highest and roughest hills I can find and when I come back the fans will have good reason to be surprised."

"I am just as good a fighter as any lightweight in the game today, with the exception of Joe Gans, and to prove that I am not bluffing I will make a good side bet with any of them."

Hanlon seems sincere in his talk and advances as an argument for his bad showings during the last few starts the fact that he laid off too long between fights to pick up in two weeks he allowed for training.

Unholz vs. Gans--Bosh.

Joe Thomas received a telegram from Ror Unholz yesterday advising him to make the match between himself and Gans possible, but to make it a finish contest and have the weight fixed at 133 pounds at ring side.

Unholz is evidently sincere in his wish to meet the colored wonder and to meet Joe Thomas talk one would almost come to believe that the Boer had a chance. Thomas is of the opinion that Unholz has a chance because he is such an awkward fighter. "Why," says Joe, "he is in an upright position one second and the next he will be close to the floor that it is impossible to hit him. It is impossible to find him out of his couch and Gans will have a hard time hitting him."

This may all be, Joe, but we have heard this sort of talk before when young fellows were matched with Gans. Unholz should be asked to beat a few more first class fighters before he is matched with Gans and the public's money put up to witness the contest that the press agent is sure to say will be a good one.

Let Unholz beat a few live ones and then we might stand for him, but a fighter with the number of lost battles in his record that Gans has and the fact that he has never shown class that would entitle him to a chance with the clever Dingo, should be enough to bar him from a match with the wonderful negro until such time as he has racked a few good ones to sleep.

OAKLAND BANKERS TO PLAY THE PENSACOLA BALL TEAM

The Oakland Bankers, one of the fastest amateur organizations in California, will journey to Pensacola tomorrow, where they will meet the fast Pensacola team.

The Bankers have a fine team, and are going out for the championship of Alameda county this season. Several former State League stars are in the line up. Any amateur team in California wishing to play the Bankers can be accommodated by writing to W. Ellis, manager, Oakland Bank of Savings. The team's line-up follows:

STANFORD SENDS STRONG TEAM TO MEET SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 6.—The Stanford athletic team, sixteen strong, headed by "Red" Moulton and Manager Krupp, left for Los Angeles on the coaster last night. They are to meet the University of Southern California Saturday afternoon in a dual track meet.

The team which went south last night is the pick of the Cardinal squad. On form the Stanford men should bring home an easy victory. Both Trainer Moulton and Manager Krupp expect their charges to win, although they make allowance for the handicap imposed on them by strange ground.

Barring the dashes and some of the field events, Stanford expects to take all of the events. Reed is showing fine form in both the 100 and 220 yard events and Holman has been on his heels.

Shute of Southern California has a good record and his slow time for this season is accounted for by the fact that he has not had to extend himself this season. The quarter, the half and the two distance races are pretty sure to come Stanford's way.

In the field events the points will probably be divided, as Richardson is a brilliant performer and should press the Stanford men hard in all five events. Morton should annex the shot put.

San Jose Nine Almost Complete

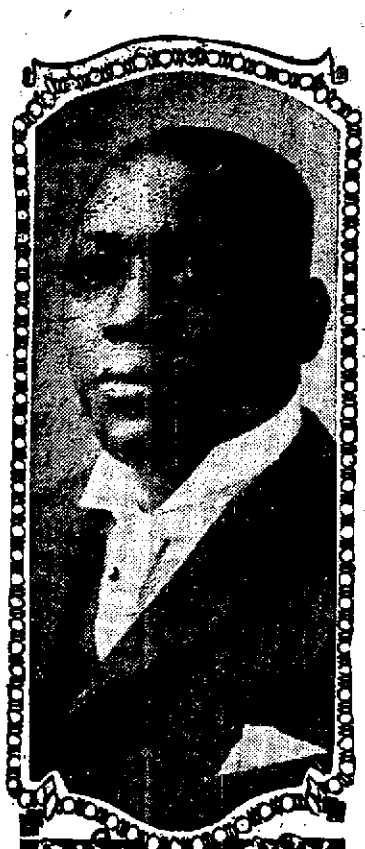

SAN JOSE, March 6.—The San Jose baseball team has been completed with the exception of a first baseman, and the management expects to sign up a crack man for this position shortly. The roster of the team contains the names of many of the best ball players in California.

The outfield at Luna Park is fixed up in shape, and the park when being put will be one of the handsomest in the State.

California Girls Win at Basketball

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The Coed basketball team of the University of California easily defeated the five from the Cogswell High School here last Wednesday by a score of 14 to 3, on the Hearst Hall court in Berkeley.

Jack Johnson, who will fight Tommy Burns for championship in London.

Battling Nelson To Have Manager

CHICAGO, March 6.—Unless present plans miscarry Battling Nelson will have a new manager, and he is to be Billy Gee, now a farmer, but a man who for a long time was connected with the sporting game. Gee and Nelson have been corresponding for a long time and have all but closed the deal that is to make them teammates.

Nelson has been without a manager for a long time, and he now sees that it will be good for him to hook up with a man like Gee.

Amateur Notes

The Duboce Athletic Club has reorganized their baseball team and furnished their members with new uniforms and desire to hear from all fans living in the country as well as city. Address all challenges to J. Pezzolo, care of Duboce Athletic Club, 770 Haight street, San Francisco.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC TEAMS ON THIS SIDE OF BAY MAY JUMP ACADEMIC LEAGUE

A meeting of the athletic directors of the high schools on this side of the bay, which will be held at the Oakland High School tomorrow will determine whether or not the Berkeley, Alameda and Oakland high schools will continue as members of the Academic League.

The athletic management of these schools have demanded of the Academic League that they be given fifty percent of the receipts in all meets where their athletes participate. Heretofore they have been allowed nothing from the gate receipts, and a request made to the Academic League officials recently that the athletic teams be compensated was denied.

Delegates from the athletic associations of the three high schools named met in Oakland last Saturday and after a session of three hours were unable to reach a decision and deferred definite action for one week. It is expected that the next meeting of the Academic League will be in attendance Saturday. The demand of the east bay high schools for 50 percent of the gate receipts will then be put squarely up to the head of the league, and if it is not granted the schools are expected to withdraw from the organization and form an independent league.

The girls' basketball team of the Alameda High School will play the team of the Healdsburg high school in the latter town tomorrow night. The local aggregation will consist of Miss Emma Knapp, Miss Irene Wood, Miss Gertrude Johnson, Miss Vera Howard, Miss Cecelia Bernstein, Miss Nina Dimond, captain, Miss Ethel Murray manager.

SAM FITZPATRICK ACCEPTS ENGLISH OFFER OF BURNS-JOHNSON CONTEST

NEW YORK, March 6.—Sam Fitzpatrick, on behalf of Jack Johnson, the great negro pugilist, has accepted the offer of the London syndicate for a fight between his protegee and Tommy Burns in England. The only demand that Fitzpatrick makes is that the London people put a guarantee of $1000 for expenses for Johnson on the trip.

"This will insure sincerity on the part of the Englishmen," declared Fitzpatrick, "and I will post $2500 as a guarantee of my good faith."

"I believe that Johnson can beat Burns at any time," said Fitzpatrick, "and I have in mind the financial results of the victory in accepting the $5000 win, lose or draw inducements."

GOSSIP AND CHAT OF INTEREST TO FANS

At 5:30 o'clock this afternoon the conductor of the Owl will flash a signal at the engineer and the Oakland baseball club, or at least the vanguard of that team, will be off for San Diego, where they will do their training this spring. Van Halten will lead ten men on the trip and the others will join the team either at the training quarters or on the journey to San Diego.

The men who make up the team that leaves Oakland tonight are Van Halten, Heilmuller, Quick, Scruggs, Dashiwood, Egan, Cook, Haley, Hopkins and McFarland.

McFarland arrived in Oakland and reported to Van Halten last night.

Hogan and Smith are at Baker's field and will join the team as the train passes through from Los Angeles.

Pitcher Hardy is on his way from his home in Torrey, as was a train heistated at Tontogony yesterday. Bill Wright is also on his way. Comes is due to arrive from Yuma, Ariz., about the same time that Oakland lands at San Diego.

It is the program to get right down to business and Oakland is to play the Pickwickers at San Diego Sunday afternoon. The team will arrive at training quarters Saturday.

Van Halten declared this morning that he expected to get good work out of his youngsters, and expects to land the team in a good position this season.

Neither the White Sox or Seals got in any practice yesterday, but the teams expect to do a little work this afternoon in a regularly scheduled game across the bay.

From present indications it looks as though the Seals and White Sox will get fine weather for their game, which is scheduled at Freeman's Park for next Sunday morning.

The many followers of W. W. Finn were in high spirits when the popular Emeryville horseman won a race with Salvage.

Ruth W. was the paddock tip that went yesterday.

Harry Mack had a good bet on Lackville all three ways. The Lackville filly had no excuse, as she got off with Minnie Bright.

The Pan Roast Club had a full session yesterday morning. President Al Smith will take an extra session of the club to take action on Harry Mack, Charley McCafferty, H. G. Bedwell and others for not attending the regular meeting. By a vote of 50 to 3 Barney Schieber was elected for the coming year as King Jester.

Johnny Miller struck with Import. He cashed a good bet.

Moss Goldblatt bet on Mortiboy—$50.

High Gun ran out of ammunition when the pluck came.

Fred Bent ran a game race in the handicap.

J. W. Powell, the former owner of Early House, has been ruled off the turf by the judges at the Tampa meeting for assaulting H. T. Palmer. The trouble arose over the bidding up of Early House after the third race Thursday by Palmer, who was Silver Brook, which finished second in the race.

Cyclers to Have Endurance Test

SAN FRANCISCO, March 6.—The captains of the various cycling clubs about the bay are to meet at San Francisco next Wednesday evening with the officers of the California Associated Cyclists and arrangements are to be made for the annual novice race and for a bicycle hill-climbing contest. The hill-climbing contest for bicycles will be something new, but the cyclists are taking kindly to the idea. It will give those riders who are strong and enduring, but do not possess remarkable speed, an opportunity to show what they can do. It is proposed the race shall be for ten miles up and down hills.

IMPORT, RANK OUTSIDER TAKES COLMA HANDICAP

Sneaks Through on Rail, Defeating Choices in Handy Fashion--Tom Shaw the Choice, Runs Last.

A little incident which occurred in the betting ring just before the running of the last race yesterday almost precipitated a personal encounter between Bookmakers Emil Herz and Al Koenigsberg, and induced Secretary Treat to instruct Captain of Detectives Forsee to notify Koenigsberg that if his name is reported to a similar connection in the future he will be refused admission to Williams Park.

According to Captain Forsee's report to Secretary Treat a better came up in the last race yesterday and Koenigsberg placed his money at the higher odds. Herz was very wroth at what he considered the unjustifiable interference of Koenigsberg and informed him of his displeasure in no uncertain terms. Koenigsberg replied in kind and is said to have made several stirring remarks reflecting on Herz' character and reputation. Before the men could come to blows Captain Forsee interfered, and after hearing both sides of the dispute he made a report to the secretary's office. Secretary Treat sent a severe reprimand to Koenigsberg for his connection with the affair.

At Williams Park yesterday, Import, the rank outsider, admirably ridden by Buxton, defeated the field of four which lined up against him in the Colma Handicap. The race, which was the feature of today's good card, was at a snail's pace and the four other starters figured to have a chance. Import, owing to the poor showing made in his recent races, was the favorite and won to the post at 11 to 1. He practically trailed his field to the stretch, where, in the hands of the cleverly ridden Buxton, he made a dash for the finish, and closing like a cyclone in the heaviest going, easily won the race. Masses met with interference at the start, and a game race to the second fence. Bent, Tom Shaw, the choice, grew weary after setting the pace, and wound up at the end of the mile.

Minnie Bright made good for the talent in the opening dash by taking the lead at the start and winning all the way. Flying Dancer outgamed False Nun for the place.

Salvage, the odds-on choice in the second race, was blocked the best and tipped back from the wire. Prestige was pressing the winner a bit at the end and easily held the last thing Huffer safe for second honors.

Mortiboy was the goods in the third, and taking command at the rise of the barrier never left the race. He practically took the place from the poorly ridden Wildcat. The latter was practically left and finished on his own courage.

The fifth, a mile dash, went to Brookland Blue, the choice, broke late, and ran a winning race, finishing second.

The closing race proved a gift for Smiley Corbett, and he won pulled up by seven lengths. Pajavola was just as easily won from the other, and was always second from Ocean Shore.

Although held at a short price a world of coin was taken out of the ring on the win of Salvage.

The talent got the best of the bookies on the first three races.

The bunch from Show-Me-Town were in line on the win of Minnie Bright.

Ten horses, the property of Barney Schieber, are on their way from Arcadia.

Smiley Corbett was my one best spread of the afternoon's sport.

Horseman Oscar Humes, who got into a jam at the alleged drinking of St. Moritz, was released by the crowd at the track yesterday.

Billy Cross, the bright turf writer of the New York Graphic, is thinking of putting on a book at the next out-in. Cross has won a bunch of the long green in the past few weeks.

Frank Doss went down the line on False Nun to take the place. His money did not effect the price any, as the bookies never rubbed 2 to 1.

IMPORT, RANK OUTSIDER TAKES COLMA HANDICAP

The twelve-year-old broodmare, Genna, by Balgovan-Parole, by Panique, foaled at Bay City by Ruben Brown, February 22, and J. Carney is wondering what to name the youngster. Her first foal was named Bunker Hill and the second, now a two-year-old, is named Faneuil Hall. All three colts are full brothers.

The public fell to Tom Shaw. Once around the ring is a little too far for C. E. Ellison's useful plater, Lancaster, died at City Park the other day.

The following horses were sold at auction at New Orleans recently: Western Duke, $50, Dr. Edwards; Roundleaf, $10, N. Moore; Shug, $50, A. Greenlee; Frank Longshore, $5, D. Pierpont; Tracy Gately, $100, J. C. Perrier; J. T. Torth, $40, Dr. Edwards; Brown Brown, $35, M. H. Rusk; Client, $35, J. C. Perrier; J. High Frequency, $35, D. Noel; Murren, $50, J. C. Perrier; J. Brimmer, $105, A. C. Capps; Wander, $35, N. Moore.

At a meeting held by the executive committee of the Crescent City Jockey Club, it was decided not to change the betting system which has prevailed at that track since the beginning of the season.

Many of the horsemen about Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend intend to make the Larry Mulligan race the last good time of the winter for them before racing begins. The function will be on March 6. Tully Coulter, R. H. Brown, Colonel Tyler, Bob Arthur, James Beutle and others will attend the sales of boxes tomorrow.

There are about fifteen head in the band, among them Julia Powell and Miss Norfolk, which were wintered in Connecticut for W. E. Johnson. Mr. Johnson has sent on word from Arcadia to have his stable in good order by the latter part of March, when he will be ready to ship about ten head to the Gravesend track.

The sharpshooters went to False Nun a place. Doss' filly finished a match further out.

Owner Don Ross bet some solid amounts on Massa.

Sea Lad can win when properly placed. Plausible dogged it badly.

Hillman to Meet Hasking in Race

NEW YORK, March 6.—Officials of the New York Athletic Club arranged yesterday for the club's indoor games at Madison Square Garden on Saturday. A special match race at 600 yards between Guy Hasking of Pennsylvania, the inter-collegiate half mile and mile champion and Harry L. Hillman, the crack sprinter of the New York Athletic Club, Hillman had been matched against J. B. Taylor, but the latter's abandonment of indoor racing for the rest of the season led to negotiations with Hasking, who finally consented to take his college mate's place. The two men are generally considered to be very evenly matched and their meeting is likely to excite much interest. Another race in which the club's management entertains hopes of seeing records smashed is the hurdle race in which the competitors will include Forrest Robinson of the Multnomah Athletic Club; A. B. Shaw of Dartmouth and H. C. Leavitt of the Boston Athletic Club. Leavitt was the winner of the hurdle event at the Olympic games at Athens.

800 PUPILS MARCH FROM SCHOOL IN ONE MINUTE AND 22 SECONDS

Rapid Exit From Lincoln Building in Fire Drill---Principal Makes Sharp Reply to Criticism.

In less than one minute and twenty seconds about 800 pupils of the Lincoln Grammar school marched in an orderly manner out of the school building in answer to a signal for a fire drill. Two successive fire drills were given this morning. The first was accomplished in one and one-half minutes and the second in one minute and twenty seconds.

When the fire alarm was sounded nine minutes took charge of the signals and the exits. There are seven exits from the large building and nine exits from the small one. There are four stairways exit down stairs from both large and small buildings, and three exits from both buildings. There are two sets of folding door exits in the ground floor and two sets of folding doors up stairs, which are always open. There are two basement exits which are also left open. All but four exits in the building are open as all times.

children formed themselves with remarkable rapidity and with little or no confusion the girls marching out first three abreast and the boys followed.

The moment an alarm is heard from any part of the city these monitors give a signal which calls for a fire drill. No matter what hour of the day that may be the children must always be ready without even a moment's notice.

In answer to a complaint made by William Stevens of 70 Eleventh street who removed his daughter, Laura, from the school as he considered that the building had narrow hallways and inadequate exits J. P. Garlick, principal of the Lincoln school makes the following reply:

Replies to Criticism

Editor TRIBUNE: In the Lincoln

school in case of a fire there are from the upper rooms three exits so that if the fire was out of the building the exits of the building including the base ment are enough for six pupils to walk

down and open them.

All doors of the school except two which are always open during school hours are open outward.

The fire drills in this school are frequently held and take from one and a half to one and three-fourths minutes.

The halls of the main building are wide enough for six pupils to walk

down and open them.

The hall of the small building which contains nine classrooms are over ten feet wide. The little building called the annex contains but two classes and is the easiest of all to empty.

Considering the width of the halls the frequency of the fire drills it is my opinion that the Lincoln school in case of a fire is as safe as a wooden building erected as this building is constructed.

In regard to boys smoking in the basement of the Lincoln school such a thing

DR. LONG AND PROF. LOEB DIFFER IN FIGURES

fection only applied to certain districts

in Oakland.

In the residence sections of Oakland

the percentage of infection is not over

one and a half per cent, probably, said

Dr. Bancroft. Probably it is less than this figure. But Dr. Loeb was speaking of certain sections in the business district where infected rats had been caught and where they had since propagated and spread their infection.

Dr. Loeb declared at the North Berkeley meeting that the Berkeley garbage dump was a menace to the health of the whole bay region. He would have the garbage dump surrounded by a high metal fence and times of garbage applied to the enclosure.

Dr. Long's Statement

In reference to the statement made last night by Dr. Loeb of the University of California to the effect that the number of rats infected with bubonic plague has reached 8 per cent Dr. John D. Long,

government expert in charge of the fight against the disease in Oakland said this morning.

Dr. Loeb is mistaken. The number of infected rats in Oakland has not reached 8 per cent.

Dr. Loeb repeated the figures that gave him that impression from me. I do not want to understand that I contradicted

Dr. Loeb's statement in the spirit of intimating that what he said is untrue, but

I do mean to emphasize that his statement is incorrect as far as the total percentage of infected rats is concerned.

I am not criticizing Dr. Loeb because he has shown sincere sympathy with our war on the plague.

It happened that to three successive days recently the percentage of infect rats was unusual.

Applied to Only 3 Days.

Therefore during these three days

250 rats were examined 20 of which were infected giving 12 1/2 per cent of infect rats.

But this was extraordinary. On its face the circumstance proves the figures do not mean that 12 1/2 per cent of all the rats in Oakland are infected because

2 per cent of infected rats is the plague epidemic line and if 2 per cent makes an epidemic 12 1/2 per cent would produce a scourge that would wipe the population of California off the face of the map.

Total Percentage Is 13-10

As a matter of fact our daily records show that 4284 rats have been examined

since January 27 of which 60 were infect giving 1.4 per cent.

This is 10 per cent below the plague

epidemic line.

The conditions on the West Oakland garbage dump have a great deal to do with increasing the total percentage of infected rats.

Since January 27 we have examined

228 rats from the West Oakland dump,

14 of which were infected or 6.1 per cent.

To emphasize the positive menace of the West Oakland dump I will set out the following list showing exactly the number of rats caught on the dump on the days that the rat catchers searched

the dump:
